

Where to go... and how to get there

You can choose from an excellent selection of naturist holiday destinations, plus a wide variety of popular travel choices by air, self-drive and rail (the last two mostly for France).

Special arrangements

In addition to our standard holidays, we can make special individual arrangements at most of our resorts. For example, you can combine stays in different resorts to create a two, or even three-centre holiday. You can stay longer than the one or two week durations shown in the price tables. And, outside high season, you can change the arrival and departure day from the Saturday to Saturday durations usually shown in the price tables.

Please ring to discuss your requirements.

France (pp 6-17)

Mediterranean Cap d'Agde is the world's only naturist town. Midway between Montpellier and Narbonne, it's a smart international resort, complete with a naturist marina, a mile of sandy beach, and a lovely laid-back atmosphere.

Further south on the Mediterranean, at Port Leucate, you find the quieter family villages of Aphrodite Village and Club Oasis where it is very relaxed and tranquil, and glorious sunshine is practically guaranteed.

On the sunny Atlantic coast, near Bordeaux, we offer excellent self-catering family holidays. Here the secluded beaches of the beautiful 'Silver Coast' are warmed by the Gulf Stream. Choose between the resorts of La Jenny and Euronat.

Mainland Spain (pp 18-25)

Our two family resorts on the Costa Almeria with, famously, 322 days of sunshine a year, share the same mile-long officially-licensed naturist beach. The Vera Playa Club offers a full activity/entertainment programme: its neighbour, the naturist village of Poblado

Naturista, including Vera Natura, offers quieter holidays.

If you like to combine sightseeing with naturism, we also offer two-week holidays that are just for you. These tours combine five days of escorted coach touring in southern Spain with a nine day stay at Vera Playa.

Further down the coast, facing North Africa, is mainland Spain's oldest naturist resort, Costa Natura, on the Costa del Sol. It has over 200 comfortable self-catering apartments, set in beautiful sub-tropical gardens, with excellent 'textile' sports facilities and many golf courses nearby.

Canary Islands (pp 26-31)

The duty-free Canary Islands, just off the North African coast, are part of Spain. The climate is famously wonderful: plenty of sunshine and pleasantly warm breezes from the Sahara almost all year round. We go to Lanzarote and Fuerteventura, with flights from many regional British airports.

On Lanzarote, we have been working with Las Piteras in the family naturist complex of Charco del Palo since 1990. You stay in very comfortable self-catering apartments in a peaceful location overlooking the sea. It is an excellent base for exploring, and car hire is included.

On Fuerteventura, you have the choice of two resorts. The naturist Monte Marina Apartments are grouped around a pool in tropical surroundings. They have easy access to the clothes-optional Sotavento beaches below (where you can walk nude for more than two hours).

Alternatively, the luxurious 4-star all-inclusive resort of Occidental Grand Fuerteventura has a dedicated naturist area (with pool, whirlpool and sauna) and access to the clothes-optional sandy beach. Its 5-star Royal Club also gives access to all its facilities.

Croatia (pp 32-35)

The Istrian peninsula is home to the ever-popular family nudist resorts of Koversada and Valalta. Just south of the Italian border, the Italian influence is strong. It is beautiful, and sunny, and exceptionally good value.

Crete (pp 36-37)

This is one of the most popular of the Greek islands and Europe's southernmost point. It is particularly lovely in spring and autumn, with plenty of sunshine and pleasant temperatures. The family-owned Hotel Vritomartis is surrounded by lush vegetation, with good facilities and standards.

The United States (pp 38-41)

Florida is famous for its year-round sunshine, gentle climate and mild winters. You can combine our two resorts here for a two-centre holiday.

We're offering its newest nudist resort and spa, Caliente, just north of Tampa. This is a 101-acre luxury estate with extensive facilities. The many attractions of the area, plus several golf courses, are within easy reach.

Otherwise, the nudist resort of Cypress Cove is just south of Orlando and its world-famous theme parks. It is excellent for family holidays, with comfortable, self-catering accommodation and many sports facilities. Car hire is included.

Caribbean Islands (pp 42-51)

The Dominican Republic is an island paradise and its ever-popular nudist resort, Eden Bay offers affordable all-inclusive luxury for a quiet and relaxing holiday, with very friendly staff.

Our family resort on Bonaire, Sorobon Beach, is a real find. The accommodation is superb with comfortable semi-detached chalets, and its own private nudist beach.

Jamaica offers 'adults only' holidays in very comfortable surroundings. For real indulgence, consider Grand Lido Braco, a self-contained nudist 'village', with its own white sandy beach within a large luxury resort.

Otherwise, enjoy the adult party atmosphere of the 4-star resorts, Hedonism II and Hedonism III. Featured in the television series Pleasure Island, 'Hedo' is like an 18-30 club for adults of all ages. Go to be wicked for a week, or longer.

Elsewhere, the beautiful island of St Martin is warm year-round and also has duty-free shopping! Club Orient offers spacious self-catering accommodation and the sparkling white beach is clothes-optional.

Mexico (pp 52-55)

The beautiful Yucatan peninsula faces the Caribbean and offers luxurious holidays for the discerning nudist. The Hidden Beach Resort offers 5-star luxury for genuine nudists, with nudity around the clock anywhere in the resort. The Desire Resort & Spa, for adult couples, offers all-inclusive facilities, including many pampering spa treatments. Clothing is optional but nude is usual everywhere except where food is served and in reception.

HOW TO GET THERE...

By air

You can fly to many destinations from regional UK airports – see pages 72-73. If your chosen departure point is not shown, please enquire by phone. You can benefit from discounted Club Class supplements on flights to Montpellier, Gibraltar, St Martin, Bonaire and Jamaica.

Self-drive European holidays

As Britain's largest nudist tour operator, we work regularly with Eurotunnel, P&O Ferries, SeaFrance, Transmanche, Condor and Brittany

Ferries and our excellent rates reflect this.

Our self-drive prices include Channel crossings by Eurotunnel, P&O Ferries or SeaFrance (Dover/Calais) for a car up to 5.5m in length. Outward and homeward crossings must be with the same carrier.

Self-drive/Channel ferries

You may choose to cross at any time. Travelling in off-peak hours offers big savings at busy periods but availability is limited.

You can travel on other routes at a supplement (page 59). These include crossings to Dieppe, Caen, Cherbourg, St Malo or Roscoff from Newhaven, Portsmouth, Poole or Plymouth.

Self-drive/Eurotunnel

You cross the Channel in just 35 minutes, platform to platform. Eurotunnel operates between Folkestone and Calais/Coquelles 24 hours a day whatever the weather, with up to four departures per hour. The FlexiPlus premium service – allowing you to change your travel times and dates – is available for a £97 supplement (return).

Self-drive flexibility in France

Many people extend their holiday by touring in France using stopover hotels of the Campanile/Kyriad network (page 61). We can also put together two-centre holidays: La Jenny and Cap d'Agde is a popular combination.

Self-drive holiday durations

Note: The day of departure from the UK is not necessarily the day of arrival in resort. Your stay in resort should ideally start on the same day of the week as the comparable air holiday. Holiday durations are normally multiples of a week, usually starting on Saturdays. Exceptions can be made out of high season, and any time at Cap d'Agde and in Spain.

By rail to Cap d'Agde

We have weekly rail departures to Cap d'Agde. The journey takes less than eight hours from London Waterloo, or seven hours from Ashford (Kent), plus a short transfer.

Las Piteras, Lanzarote

- Secluded and peaceful unspoilt location overlooking the sea
- Hot and dry climate for year-round sunbathing and swimming
- Family resort with very comfortable self-catering accommodation
- Car hire with unlimited mileage included in the price
- THE home of British naturists in Lanzarote – we are the only UK tour operator offering packages to Charco del Palo since 1990
- Excellent base for exploring Lanzarote – Fire Mountains, Teguisse market, etc.
- Flights from most UK airports

CAR HIRE INCLUDED!

Type 1 (for 2 or 3 people)

Apartment with separate double bedroom, large wardrobe, safe deposit box, living/dining room with kitchenette, 2-ring electric hob, microwave, fridge, kettle, toaster, coffee maker, and equipped with pots and pans, crockery and cutlery for self-catering. Shower/toilet. Some units have satellite TV and CD/DVD player.

Type 2 (for up to 2 people)

As Type 1, but with a communal terrace and sea view.

The first naturist village in the Canaries – Charco del Palo – was opened on Lanzarote in 1979. Initially, part of it (Castillo de Papagayo) was developed by a German tour operator. Gradually, private villas and apartments were built in its immediate vicinity, among them Las Piteras. Our accommodation is not in the German 'enclave' and is mostly frequented by the British.

Location

Las Piteras is situated 15 miles north-east of Lanzarote's capital, Arrecife, three miles off the main road near the village of Mala. This isolated location ensures a peaceful and tranquil holiday close to nature.

The group of three (mainly single storey) buildings has been built on a sand-covered clifftop, overlooking the sea. An almost permanent breeze tempers and dries the prevailing heat, ensuring comfortable nights' sleep under a blanket – even in the summer!

Type 3 (for up to 4 people)

Apartment with two separate double bedrooms, safety deposit box, large living/dining area with breakfast bar, 2-ring electric hob, microwave, fridge, kettle, toaster, coffee maker, and equipped with pots and pans, crockery and cutlery for self-catering. Shower/toilet, balcony and sea-view. An additional child can be put up in the living area. Cots are available.

Facilities

The sheltered fresh-water swimming pool is the social centre of Las Piteras. Next to it is the boccia (boules) court and the open-air barbecue.

A small natural sea-water pool is deep enough to swim in at high tide and about two hours either side of it. The sea-water temperature is fairly constant at 20°C (68°F) all year. (Las Piteras is also available during the winter.)

Elsewhere, rocks make sea bathing

Accommodation

There are four types of accommodation:

Studio (for 1 or 2 people)

Large room with sitting area, breakfast bar, kitchenette with 2-ring electric hob, microwave, fridge, kettle, toaster, coffee maker, and equipped with pots and pans, crockery and cutlery for self-catering, double bed and wardrobe. Shower/toilet room. Sea view.

dangerous but provide their own interest as the sea continually hammers out caves, blowholes and arches.

Within the naturist area, just 300 yards away, is the Castillo de Papagayo complex with three restaurants (occasional music, dancing and other entertainment), a cafeteria, a small grocer's and a further large rock pool.

The Canaries are a duty-free area. This explains why there is no special duty-free shop at the airport!

Lanzarote

This is one of the warm Canaries and lies about 70 miles off the west coast of North Africa. It is an extraordinary island of unusual beauty. You will find some 300 volcanoes and congealed lava beds which form an impressive landscape in ochre, black, grey, blue and vermilion. The absence of any green is very noticeable – apart from a few cactus fields and palm trees.

There are underground lakes, secluded beaches, sleepy villages with whitewashed houses and terraced vineyards (the local wine is called Malvasia). The almost continuous sunshine and year-round pleasant climate also help to produce bumper crops of tomatoes, melons and sweet potatoes.

Sightseeing

Because of the location of Las Piteras we include car hire with unlimited mileage in our holiday charges. This gives you a wonderful opportunity to explore this fascinating island.

The Fire Mountains in the Timanfaya National Park are the best known attraction. Take a camel ride over the lava crust or a bus to the top for an impressive view of the masses of lava and the volcano craters which last erupted in 1824.

Playa Blanca is the southern-most resort on Lanzarote. Near here is a new National Park (entrance fee) with magnificent sandy beaches, some of which are unofficially used by naturists. (Access is over some five miles of partially unmade track.)

Puerto del Carmen is the biggest holiday resort on Lanzarote. Originally a small fishing village, it now stretches for some three miles along the golden sandy beach. The island's nightlife is centred here and, to a lesser extent at Costa Teguese.

La Cueva de los Verdes is a system of unusual underground caves extending over four miles. It was formed by flows of lava in the distant past. An extension of the caves is the underground lagoon of Jameos del Agua which has been transformed into a restaurant, swimming pool and night-club complex. A lake at the bottom of the caves has unique blind, white crabs.

SPECIAL OFFER!

Reduced prices for 2-week holidays commencing during the period May 10 to August 23. These reductions have been reflected in the price tables on page 65.

Teguese is the ancient capital of the island, a noble and quiet town where the best 'timple's' (musical instruments typical of the Canary Islands) are made. On clear days, the neighbouring islands can be seen from its Tower of Homage. On Sunday mornings there is a popular street market.

Arrecife is the capital of the island with approximately 35,000 inhabitants – half the population of Lanzarote! The Castillo de San Gabriel dates back to the 16C. Situated on a small island and accessible over a short bridge, it is now the archeological museum.

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract: and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

Monte Marina, Fuerteventura

- First Nourist resort on Fuerteventura
- Comfortable apartments – option to eat in or out
- Tranquil and beautiful sub-tropical gardens. Clear, turquoise-blue waters
- Lovely 'clothes-optional' walks along 20-miles of Sotavento beaches
- Ideal climate for year-round holidays (high season is in winter!)
- Public bus service to the market and shops in Morro Jable
- Flights from a wide choice of UK airports, plus special offer on car hire!

by sun loungers and umbrellas. There is direct access to the pool from the terraces of the apartments on the ground floor. Beach towels are provided (deposit required).

The beach

Monte Marina is built on the cliffs with 20 miles of sandy beach literally lying at its feet, about five minutes walk away. The width varies with the tides, and it is clothes-optional throughout. To the south, the Playa de Jandia is now overdeveloped and nudity is found only in a few clusters. To the north, the extensive Playa de Sotavento invites hours of nude walking on sand along romantic lagoons and the sea, which changes colour from blue and turquoise to almost white. In several places along the route are snack bars and sun loungers and umbrellas are for hire. Everywhere it is safe for refreshing dips or longer swims in the sea.

Fuerteventura is one of the lesser known Canary Islands. The interior is mountainous with volcanic craters and little vegetation, inviting tours by 4 x 4s or mountain bikes and hiking. The east coast is lined by glorious white sandy beaches. The steady Trade Winds temper the heat and make the island a paradise for windsurfers. Even in the winter temperatures are in the 70s.

Location

Monte Marina is located on the Jandia Peninsula in the southernmost part of the island in the quiet village of Esquinzo. There are a few other apartment complexes, three restaurants and a supermarket nearby.

A half-hourly public bus service gives access to Playa de Jandia with its duty-free shops and Morro Jable with more traditional bars and restaurants.

Accommodation

All apartments have a living room with upholstered bench, satellite TV, safe deposit box (for rental), fully equipped kitchenette with a 2-ring hob, fridge and coffee maker, dining area, separate bedroom with separate beds (together), bathroom with shower (including hair dryer) and wc. Toaster, ironing board and iron are available on request. Apartments type B are on the ground floor around the pool and have a terrace; type D are on the first floor around the pool and have a balcony with a view of the sea in the distance.

The pool

The naturist seawater pool and whirlpool is set in lush tropical gardens and surrounded

Facilities

In Monte Marina itself, facilities are limited to the pool and a table tennis table. In the neighbouring hotel – under the same management – is the part-time reception, coffee bar, TV lounge, restaurant and a further (textile) seawater pool, heated and partly enclosed, with whirlpool, sunbathing terraces and garden chess.

We can make arrangements for half board with the neighbouring Restaurant Playa Marina – only if prebooked.

Ecology

Protection of the environment is a priority on this beautiful island.

Six beaches on Fuerteventura have been awarded Blue Flags, indicating high seawater and beach quality. Sewage is treated efficiently, and the residual water is used in agriculture and to irrigate gardens etc. Domestic garbage is largely recycled.

Fresh water is scarce; most tap water is desalinated. Solar energy is little used, as yet; however, wind farms cover 10% of all energy requirements.

Excursions

We recommend that you take advantage of our excellent car hire deals, both for shopping and for exploring the island.

There are magnificent sandy coves and longer beaches in undeveloped areas, mainly along the east coast.

The Corralejo National Park in the north is an expanse of shifting, gleaming white sand dunes which have established themselves as a nature reserve.

A Grand Tour of the island shows off the empty landscapes with many extinct volcano cones. Sleepy villages are scattered among the valleys and the whitewashed houses are surrounded by cactus plants, palm trees and grazing goats.

See Betancuria, the former capital, which is built on the sides of an extinct volcano. Visit the Casa Santa Maria, a typical old Canarian house and watch a multi-vision film of Fuerteventura. Also taste cheese in a typical 'majarera' farm.

Pajara is one of the most beautiful villages: visit its church with its Aztec façade.

In Lajares you can visit two windmills and be shown how grain used to be ground. There is also a demonstration of hand embroidery.

The Oasis Park is an animal park with parrots, reptiles, seals and a camel reserve. A camel safari and Canarian buffet lunch are included. In the Botanical Gardens migratory birds and birds of prey are on show.

New, is a Helicopter Tour from Fuerteventura Airport. To the north you will see the spectacular sand dunes of the Corralejo

CAR HIRE OFFER

Car hire is available from/to Fuerteventura airport. 2-door economy car (Fiat Punto or similar) with air-conditioning, unlimited mileage, third party insurance, CDW, airport surcharge, insurance excess refund and bail bond included (minimum and maximum age restrictions may apply). A pink 'EC Model' or photo driving licence is required.

1 week £30, 2 weeks £173.

Occidental Grand Fuerteventura

- Family resort, 4-star all-inclusive hotel
- Dedicated naturist area with pool, whirlpool, sunbathing lawns, sun beds, sauna and Turkish bath
- Clothes-optional sandy beach and clear, turquoise blue waters
- Ideal for year-round sunbathing and swimming (high season is in winter!)
- Large number of activities and entertainment day and night
- Flights from a wide choice of UK airports

Fuerteventura is the second largest of the Canary Islands and lies only 60 miles off Morocco on the African coast. With year-round sunshine and pleasantly warm breezes blowing from the Sahara at most times of the year, this is becoming the favourite European destination for the discerning naturist holidaymaker. Even in winter, temperatures go into the 70s.

Fuerteventura is the least populated of the Canaries with half the population living in the capital and main port, Puerto del Rosario. Thus, you can easily find tranquillity and empty beaches on the island.

The 4-star Occidental Grand Fuerteventura Resort opened in 2002 and prides itself on its dedicated naturist facilities.

Location

The Occidental Grand Fuerteventura is in Jandia, three miles north of the centre of Morro Jable in the south of the island. It is built on the cliffs overlooking the fine clothes-optional beach.

Accommodation

The hotel has 705 rooms in 14 blocks. They are all large (31 sq m), air-conditioned, have large twin beds, a sitting area with a table and two chairs, dressing table, ceiling fan, safe deposit box, satellite TV, telephone, hair dryer, private facilities and balcony.

Our rooms are next to, or near, the naturist area. They usually have pool or side sea view.

Royal Club

This is a 5-star hotel within the 4-star resort, at the far end from the naturist area: VIP check-in, concierge service, rooms with side or direct sea-view, air-conditioning, ceiling fan, slippers and robes, bathroom accessories, CD, DVD, satellite TV, internet connection (extra charge), à la carte restaurant with waiter service twice weekly, lounge with spectacular sea view, exclusive pool and whirlpool.

In addition to the facilities and restaurants of the Occidental Grand, guests at the Royal Club may also take advantage of the Tindaya gourmet restaurant twice weekly, the Las Reses Restaurant (grilled fish and meat), and room service during the late afternoon and evening.

Naturism

Naturism is restricted to a dedicated area, comprising a swimming pool, an open-air whirlpool, sunbathing lawns with sun loungers, sauna, steam baths, optional massage and herbal treatments, showers and a self-service Vitamin Bar. The Mandala Spa offers optional massages and herbal treatments. The naturist area affords magnificent views over the sea, even from the panoramic window of the sauna! Piped music is dispensed through 'acoustic rocks'. Beach towels are available free and changed on demand.

Whilst the beach below the hotel is clothes-optional, light dress needs to be worn on the way down.

Food & drink

The hotel operates on an all-inclusive basis. Buffets and show cooking are offered for breakfast, lunch and dinner in the main restaurant, La Giralda. Guests also have the option to reserve for one dinner at each of the three themed restaurants during their stay. La Hacienda offers Mexican food, D'Oriental serves Asian cuisine and there is also the international restaurant with a schedule of various specialities. Note: Gentlemen are expected to wear long trousers for dinner.

At lunchtime, there is also a buffet in the El Lago brasserie. All drinks (not premium brands) are included in all the restaurants and also at the Bar Lobby, the Plaza Bar and the Bar Brasserie from 10:30 a.m. until 11.45 p.m. Drinks are not included in the disco.

Activities

There are endless activities (all 'textile') grouped around the well-equipped Sports and Fitness Centre. These include tennis, paddle tennis, table tennis, volleyball, football, basketball, water polo, aerobics, water aerobics, archery, carbine and handgun shooting.

Off-site there are optional opportunities for wind and kite surfing, sailing and motocross, snorkelling and diving (including tuition), fishing and mountain biking – all charges to be paid locally.

Entertainment

The hotel has its own 450-seater theatre/auditorium for a daily programme of shows and competitions organised by a professional team from the Occidental Fun Club. There is also a disco (extra charge) and a mini cinema.

In the Sports Bar karaoke, darts and pool facilities are available.

Facilities

The shopping mall comprises shops selling international newspapers, souvenirs and beach articles, a mini-market, an amusements hall, ice cream parlour, coffee corner and a beer hall with a choice of draught beers and tapas. Internet access is available at reception. There is a charge for all the above.

Six of the swimming pools are 'textile'; they have large sunbathing terraces and plenty of free sun beds. A deposit is required for pool towels. For children (4-12 years) there is the Mini Fun Club with daily programmes.

The resort is self-sufficient in excellent facilities, activities and entertainment; as yet there are not any amenities in the immediate vicinity outside as the hotel has been built in a newly developed area.

Note: some facilities are restricted to guests of the Royal Club.

Excursion ideas

A Grand Tour of the island shows off the empty landscapes with many extinct volcano cones. Sleepy villages are scattered among the valleys and the whitewashed houses are surrounded by cactus plants, palm trees and grazing goats. Visit Betancuria, the former capital, which is built on the sides of an extinct volcano. You can visit the cathedral and the archaeological museum.

An organised camel safari and a Magic Catamaran Cruise are also available.

Other sights are best explored by a hire car. With the intensive development and commercialisation of the main beaches in Fuerteventura, unofficial naturism there is on the decline. However, there are still magnificent sandy coves and longer beaches

CAR HIRE OFFER

Car hire is available from and to Fuerteventura Airport. 2-door economy car (Fiat Punto or similar) with air-conditioning, unlimited mileage, third party insurance, CDW, airport surcharge, insurance excess refund and bail bond included (minimum and maximum age restrictions may apply). Pink 'EC Model' or photo driving licence required.

1 week £30, 2 weeks £173.

in undeveloped areas, mainly along the east coast. The nearest of these are the Playas de Sotavento.

The Corralejo National Park in the north is an expanse of shifting, gleaming white sand dunes which have established themselves as a naturist reserve.

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in table 7A.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract: and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

Koversada Naturist Park

- Family resort. The birthplace of foreign naturist holidays
- Hotel service with half board included
- Crystal-clear waters, a snorkellers' paradise. 2,600 hours of sunshine a year!
- 280 acres of grounds for long walks. Shaded woods and sunbathing areas
- Sports centre for water- and land-based activities
- Within easy walking distance of the picturesque village of Vrsar
- Excellent sightseeing opportunities: Venice is top of the list

NEW! In 2006 in the Blesička (Countess) area of Koversada, studios and apartments have been rebuilt to a 4-star standard, including air-conditioning. Situated in an elevated position above the scenic Limfjord, they are quiet and are equipped as follows:

Studio S3 (for 2 or 3 people)

Separate twin-bedded room, lobby with built-in wardrobe and safe deposit box, living area with a single bed/settee, satellite TV, direct-dial telephone, WiFi internet, bathroom with shower, wc and hairdryer, kitchenette with electric 4-ring hob and oven, fridge, coffee-maker, large dining table and patio. Single storey buildings.

Apartment A4 (for up to 4 people)

As S3 above, but with double bed/settee and bath tub instead of shower. Built in single and two-storey blocks.

Hand and bath towels are provided and changed daily, bed linen every three days. Units are cleaned once a week.

Meals

The air-conditioned dining room has splendid self-service buffets for breakfast and dinner. Our basic arrangements include half board here.

Koversada is Croatia's oldest naturist resort. First started in 1961, it has gained an excellent international reputation as a well equipped and well-developed establishment. Olive, pine and fig trees provide welcome shade from the midday sun. Koversada was picked as early as 1972 for the 13th INF Congress.

Location

Situated on the northern side of the Limfjord, on the sunny Istrian peninsula, Koversada is approximately 60 miles south of Trieste. The resort is named after the Island of Koversada (200 yards offshore but linked by a footbridge) from where naturist activities have spread over the years.

The region was part of Italy until the end of World War II, and the Italian influence, particularly in architecture, is still strong. Everywhere, you'll come across place names on road signs in both Italian and Croatian.

Accommodation

Koversada covers approximately 280 acres and can accommodate 820 people in 215 terraced one- and two-storey 'pavilions' and 119 studios and apartments. (Camping and caravan sites can accommodate a further 5,000 visitors).

All our 'pavilions' at Koversada consists of twin-bedded rooms (a third bed can be added) with built-in wardrobe and shelves, table, chairs, bathroom (with shower/wc and hand basin) and balcony. Daily maid service and linen are provided.

AT A GLANCE...

Flight information pp 72-73

For speciality meals, there are the grill and the island restaurants. In the open air one may eat nude.

Entertainment

In the main restaurant, or on its outdoor terrace, there is dancing most evenings. During the main season, there are also occasional folklore evenings and 'Miss and Mr Koversada' contests in August. Entertainment can also be found in nearby Vrsar.

Facilities

Within the grounds are five restaurants, two supermarkets, money-changing facilities and cash dispensers, a boutique, newsagents, post office (high season only) and a sports centre with equipment for hire: deck chairs, bicycles, sailing, rowing and motor boats. There are opportunities for volleyball, badminton, mini-golf, tennis, water skiing and windsurfing.

The beach

The Istrian coastline has rock and pebble bays where sunbathing platforms and access to the sea for swimming have been built. There is a large sandy area for children by the sea, and cold showers are in all parts of the grounds.

Sights & excursions

Vrsar

This picturesque fishing village is just two miles away. Perched on a hill-top, it has a fortress and ancient fortifications.

Venice (by fast craft)

An early morning start to nearby Porec for the memorable cruise to Venice in Italy. Visit St Mark's Square, the Basilica of St Mark, the bell tower (campanile), the Doge's palace and the Sansavino library. You can also see the famous Murano glass being blown. Free time to stroll among historic monuments from the time of the Venetian Republic, or to go by boat through the numerous picturesque canals. If you have not been to Venice before, this excursion is a must!

Limfjord & Rovinj (by boat)

An opportunity to sample the produce from the famous oyster and mussel farms. The scenery here resembles that of a Norwegian fjord; hence its choice as the location for the film The Vikings.

The town of Rovinj is of striking Venetian appearance with its brick-built bell tower and picturesque narrow, cobbled streets. Its beauty attracts painters and artists from all over the country. The picturesque fishing port (15C lighthouse), gypsy market and interesting shops provide further attractions.

Plitvice Lakes (by coach)

After an early start (bring picnic lunch), drive through the Croatian hinterland to the Plitvice National Park. Visit the lower lakes on foot (bring non-slip shoes) and by mini-train to admire the beauty of the lakes and waterfalls. An evening meal en route is included.

Postojna (by coach)

A half day excursion through the mountain scenery of Slovenia to Postojna to visit the magnificent 14-mile long system of caves, including a ride on an underground train.

Piran & Lipica (by coach)

You follow the Adriatic coast to Piran in Slovenia and see this impressive old town with a local guide. Continue to Lipica and visit the stud-farm where the famous Lippizaner horses are bred for Vienna's Spanish Riding School.

Flavours of Istria Tour (by coach)

Drive around the picturesque Limfjord with its fish farms and oyster beds and past the villages of Bale and Vodnjan to Pula. Sightseeing in this provincial capital and harbour town includes a visit to the well-preserved Roman amphitheatre and the local market.

Continue inland through Kanfanar and Zminj to the old town of Pazin. Visit the ethnographic museum, showing Istrian folklore, weapons, ceramics and village lifestyle, before lunch in a farmhouse. In the afternoon, a stop is made in the medieval town of Motovun, built on a hill and surrounded by 13-15C walls.

Type LB (for 5 people)

Apartment with separate twin-bedded room, living/dining room with two twin bed/settees, kitchenette, shower/wc and patio.

Meals

Breakfast and dinner (half-board) are served in the main restaurant. There are also a pizzeria, the international Restaurant Uvala, the Restaurant Saline serving Istrian specialities, the open-air fish restaurant Spaccio and grill-, aperitif-, snack- and beach-bars. Pizzas, salads etc. may be taken away from the restaurants. Valalta has its own brewery on site, complete with beer garden!

Valalta featured in Peng Travel's first programme in 1972. The picturesque coastline consists of two miles of rock and pebble beaches, including some romantic coves. Extensive lawns are interspersed with evergreen macchia bushes, olive trees and other Mediterranean vegetation affording welcome shade from the mid-day heat. Most of the 110-acre grounds is taken up by camping and caravanning with over 1,300 marked pitches.

Location

Valalta is situated on the southern side of the Limfjord on the sunny Istrian peninsula, approximately 60 miles south of Trieste. The surroundings are vineyards and fields. The town of Rovinj is five miles away.

Accommodation

The terraced accommodation units are spread out in two areas, 'Lavri' and 'Valalta', separate from the camping areas. There is a choice of rooms with half-board included or self-catering studios and apartments.

Rooms with half-board: Type S (for 1 or 2 people)

Basic room with two single beds, fridge, shower/wc and patio. Nearest to the beach.

Type VA (for 2 or 3 people)

Large twin-bedded room with bed/settee, dressing table, wardrobe and fridge, bathroom with shower, wc and hairdryer, patio.

Type LA (for 2 or 3 people)

Larger twin-bedded room with a bed/settee and TV in a sitting area, fridge, bathroom with shower/wc and patio.

Self-catering:

The following accommodation is fully equipped for self-catering with a fridge, 2-ring electric hob, pots, pans, crockery and cutlery (but no kettle).

Type AS (for 2 people)

Studio with twin beds, kitchenette, shower/wc and patio.

Type VAS (for 2 people)

As type AS, but recently renovated.

Type VB (for 4 people)

Apartment with separate twin-bedded room, living/bedroom with two beds, kitchenette, shower/wc and patio.

Pool deck

The pool deck is the focal point of Valalta. There are several sea water pools with extensive sunbathing terraces and adjoining shops, a health centre with massage, gym and sauna, a bar and an open-air tavern with regular musical entertainment in the evenings. Sun umbrellas and loungers are available for hire.

The beach

The clean water from the Limfjord ensures that the beach is unpolluted, so much so that it has been awarded the coveted Blue Flag. There are two big bays for swimming, with man-made sunbathing terraces. The 180-foot flume is very popular with children. Showers are available on the beach. The Copacabana and Cha-Ka-Cha beach bars are handy for refreshing drinks.

Facilities

There is a supermarket, fresh fruit and vegetable stall, launderette, newsagent, hairdresser, first-aid post with doctor, a bureau de change, an internet room and a yachting marina.

Sports

Choose from football, volleyball, beach volleyball, handball, basketball, jogging, mini-golf, boccia (boules), table tennis, badminton, aerobics or windsurfing, motor or sailing boat rental and tennis (eight sand courts of which four are floodlit). Windsurfing, sailing, diving and tennis lessons are available.

Entertainment

Valalta has a dedicated entertainments team who organise sporting competitions and evening entertainment with music, dancing and games. Excursions by boat or coach are also on offer.

Sights & excursions

Rovinj (by the resort's bus)

Rovinj is full of interest for the visitor and overlooks a beautiful archipelago of 13 islands and islets (some uninhabited). Rovinj is of striking Venetian appearance, dominated by the 17C bell tower of the baroque cathedral of St Eufemia. You can spend hours wandering through the narrow, winding streets of the Old Town or exploring the harbour, the gypsy market or the tempting shops.

Fish Picnic (by boat)

The weekly naturist fish picnic is a long established tradition. Food, drink, music and entertainment are included.

Plitvice Lakes (by coach)

After an early start (bring picnic lunch), drive through the Croatian hinterland to the Plitvice National Park. Visit the lower lakes on foot (bring non-slip shoes) and by mini-train to admire the beauty of the lakes and waterfalls. Evening meal en route is included.

Venice (by fast craft)

It's an early start for the memorable cruise to Venice in Italy. Visit St Mark's Square (and the Basilica), the campanile (bell tower), the Doge's palace and the Sansavino library. You will also visit a Murano blue glass workshop and have free time to stroll among historic monuments from the time of the Venetian Republic, or go by boat through the numerous picturesque canals. If you have not been to Venice before, this is your best opportunity.

Limfjord (by boat)

The Limfjord is a very deep 8-mile long inlet from the sea which has been designated a nature reserve. The scenery here so much resembles a Norwegian fjord that it was chosen as the location for the film The Vikings. There is an opportunity to sample the famous local oysters and mussels.

Postojna (by coach)

A half day excursion through the mountain scenery of Slovenia to Postojna to visit the magnificent 14-mile long system of caves, including a ride on an underground train.

Piran & Lipica (by coach)

You follow the Adriatic coast to Piran in Slovenia and see this impressive old town with a local guide. Continue to Lipica and visit the stud-farm where the famous Lippizaner horses are bred for Vienna's Spanish Riding School.

Flavours of Istria Tour (by coach)

Drive past the villages of Bale and Vodnjan to Pula. Sightseeing in this harbour town includes a visit to the well-preserved Roman amphitheatre and the local market.

Inland through Kanfanar and Zminj to the old town of Pazin. Visit the ethnographic museum, depicting Istrian folklore, weapons, ceramics and village lifestyle, before lunch in a farmhouse. In the afternoon, a stop is made in the medieval town of Motovun, built on a hill and surrounded by 13-15C walls.

Porec (by boat and on foot)

It's a short walking tour of this picturesque former fishing port with its narrow, cobbled streets. See the remains of medieval town walls, the 6C Byzantine Euphrasius basilica containing stunning mosaics and the remains of Neptune's temple. Wine cellars, street vendors and painters add to the local colour.

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract; and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

It is your responsibility to comply with the house rules of your holiday resort(s), e.g. regarding photography.

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

Aphrodite Village & Club Oasis

- Self-catering studios and apartments
- Tranquil beachside location
- Outdoor pools. On-site restaurants and supermarket
- Sports facilities, three tennis courts and a boating marina
- Ideal family resorts
- Easy reach of medieval citadel of Carcassonne, Spain and Andorra (duty-free)

The naturist villages of Aphrodite and Club Oasis are in the Roussillon region of the South of France and offer a complete contrast to the hustle and bustle of the more commercialised resorts. They are an oasis of tranquillity: no through traffic (cars must be left in special parking areas), no regular discos, an uncrowded wide sand and shingle beach, and a family atmosphere.

Both resorts are located in the naturist section of the Port Leucate development, 22 miles north of Perpignan which is on a narrow four mile strip of land with sandy beaches on one side and an 8,000 acre salt lake at the foot of the Corbières mountains on the other.

Entertainment

Occasional shows, barbecues, etc. are organised at both resorts. These are kept to a minimum in order to preserve tranquillity in the resort, but a wide range of entertainment can be found at Port Leucate which is only a short drive away.

Excursions

Whilst there are no organised excursions, the area holds a variety of interests. The Roussillon region extends from the Mediterranean to the Pyrenees, with colourful vineyards and orchards. The landscape is dotted with old towns and villages, places of pilgrimage, monasteries and churches.

The towns of Narbonne and Perpignan are of historic interest. Carcassonne is a picture-book fortified medieval town: a moat, drawbridges, ramparts, a castle and the 11C church of St Nazaire put you in a time warp.

A visit to the nearby Safari Park at Sigean will long be remembered. Covering over 510 acres, you can take an eye-opening four mile drive to see many of the 150 or more species of animals settled there.

The duty-free Principality of Andorra and the Sunday market at Rosas (Spain) are shoppers' paradises. (Passport required.) Local produce includes wine, peaches, almonds, fish, oysters and mussels.

Travel information

Holidays at Aphrodite Village and Club Oasis are available only on a self-drive basis. The resort is easily reached, being only a few miles off the main Paris-Barcelona motorway. A detailed routing will be supplied with all travel documents.

Change-over day is Saturday when arrivals must be between 16:00 hrs and 19:00 hrs, and departures before 10:00 hrs.

Aphrodite Village

Accommodation is in one or two storey buildings, grouped around small squares, flowering gardens and lawns. There are three types of apartments.

All accommodation is fully equipped for self-catering with fridge, pots, pans, crockery and cutlery. Linen and towels are not included, but linen may be hired on site if you do not bring it from home. At the time of booking, a preference for ground floor or upstairs accommodation may be expressed.

Studio (for up to 2 people)

Living/dining room with a settee which converts into a double bed, kitchenette with 2-ring electric hob, shower/toilet and small terrace or balcony.

Type 2 (up to 4 people)

Living/dining room with a settee converting into a double bed, bedroom with two single beds, kitchenette with 2-ring hob, shower/toilet and terrace or balcony.

Type 3 (up to 6 people)

Living/dining room with convertible settee to make a double bed, bedroom with a further double bed, children's room with two bunk beds, kitchenette with a 4-ring hob, bath/toilet and large terrace or balcony.

Facilities*

Aphrodite is a self-contained village, comprising a self-service store, restaurant, take-away, boutique for souvenirs and beach articles, newsagents and laundry. There are also card-operated international phone boxes. The shops are open from early June to mid-September. A post office, further shops and bistros can be found open year-round in the old village of Leucate, some four miles away.

Sports facilities include a fresh-water swimming pool, three tennis courts, a boating marina and windsurfing. Tuition is available in some of these sports. There is 'textile' horse riding and sailing at nearby Port Leucate.

* Many of the facilities are not available before June 15 or after August 31.

Club Oasis

Opened in 1990 as an extension of the old Aphrodite Village, Club Oasis is independent and under professional management.

Accommodation

Construction is of superior quality. Rooms are spacious and decorated in light colours. The large windows are double-glazed.

Particular attention has been paid to sound and heat insulation and cavity ceilings increase ventilation. Tiled floors are easy to clean.

The kitchenettes are well equipped with a 2-ring hob, a fridge and all the necessary pots, pans, crockery and cutlery. Linen and towels are not included, but linen may be hired if you don't bring your own.

Type 2 (for up to 4 people)

Apartment with a separate bedroom with double or twin beds, living/dining room with settee (converting into a double bed), kitchenette, shower/toilet and balcony. 1st or 2nd floor.

Type 2SV (up to 4 people)

As Type 2, but closer to the beach.

Type 3 (up to 6 people)

Apartment with bedroom and double bed, second bedroom with bunk beds, living/dining room with settee converting into a further double bed, kitchenette, shower/toilet and balcony. Ground or 1st floor.

Type 3SV (up to 6 people)

As Type 3, but closer to the beach.

Facilities

The focal point of the village is the swimming pool, faced by the club house with restaurant and bar. A modern tennis court is just behind.

The shopping centre in the neighbouring Aphrodite naturist village is also open to residents of Club Oasis.

Further shops, bistros and the post office can be found in the village of Leucate some four miles away. There is 'textile' horse riding, windsurfing and sailing on the lagoon there, too.

Travel Notes...

We may have flights from other airports than those shown. Please enquire by 'phone.

Important note: When you contact us to make a booking, we act as agents for the relevant carrier which will be disclosed on your documentation. A contract exists under which we accept responsibility for the provision of all the services described in our invoice.

Luggage allowance is 20 kg on all the flights listed. Flight details are subject to change. We reserve the right to substitute alternative carriers and/or aircraft types if necessary after we have confirmed your booking. Any such change does not provide grounds for cancellation without penalty.

Destination Advice

The Foreign and Commonwealth Office Travel Advice Unit may have news about your destination. You can check on BBC2 Ceefax (page 470), their website at www.fco.gov.uk or by phone on 0845 850 2829 or 020 7008 1500.

The Department of Health website has information of use to travellers:
<http://www.dh.gov.uk/PolicyAndGuidance/HealthAdviceForTravellers/fs/en>.

Passports

You should hold a current burgundy passport, ideally with at least six months to run (essential for the United States). If you hold a non UK passport, please check with the consulate of your destination country.

purpleparking For airport parking we would recommend purpleparking who offer park & ride and meet & greet services.

For further details look on the web at www.purpleparking.com/peng/ or phone 0845 450 0808, quoting ref. 46926.

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract; and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

The world's only naturist town

- Wide choice of self-catering studios, apartments and 'villas'
- Over a mile of sandy gently-shelving naturist beach, outdoor swimming pools and watersports facilities
- Part of an international resort with casino, night clubs and golf course
- Around 30 restaurants and bars
- Suitable mainly for couples and single holidaymakers
- Excursions available to local places of interest. Public transport to Nîmes, Carcassonne, Montpellier etc.
- Resident Peng Travel representatives, local Peng Travel office & Club House
- Personally hosted dinner parties, including dancing, competitions etc.

Located on the sunny shores of the Mediterranean in the South of France, Cap d'Agde is the world's largest naturist resort. It is a self-contained town and is so much more than just a naturist beach or a nudist resort.

You can stay nude from the day you arrive until the day you leave if you wish. Not surprisingly, it is our most popular resort, and some of our clients visit as often as three times a year. It is equally popular with couples, single people and families.

History

A naturist camping and caravanning site (the Centre Hélio-Marin) first opened on the beach in 1956. Thanks to its prime location, it rapidly grew into one of the Mediterranean's largest naturist centres. This was the nucleus of Europe's first naturist town, named after the ancient nearby town of Agde (which can trace its history back to classical Greek times).

Nowadays, naturist Cap d'Agde has shops, supermarkets, restaurants, cafés and bars, post office, bank and cash points. There are doctors' surgeries and a chemist's, too.

Atmosphere

In early and late season, the mood is one of total relaxation and suits the traditional naturist. You can spend lazy days lounging by one of the pools or basking in the sun on the beach.

In mid-summer, the pace increases as the town fills up with cosmopolitan people of all ages. In the evenings, many are drawn to the bars – the Johnny Wokker Pub is a favourite – and nightclubs. You can enjoy the lively, almost hedonistic, atmosphere in establishments like the Villa Romaine complex, or parade at Port Nature in outlandish attire.

Glorious beach

The mile-long naturist beach is wide and sandy. Lifeguards are on duty throughout the season.

Local activities

A wide variety (both 'textile' and naturist) of musical events, concerts and exhibitions – as well as children's activities in high season – are arranged by the Tourist Office. Many are free.

Golf & Tennis

For golfers, Cap d'Agde has an 18-hole championship course, a 9-hole course (par 3), plus a driving range.

 Stopover hotels p 61

The 'textile' International Tennis Club offers tuition for all grades and hire of over sixty courts, some covered. The naturist quarter has tennis courts, too.

Water Activities

This holiday town has several swimming pools and offers a wide range of watersports in high season. These include windsurfing, snorkelling, boat hire and pedalos. Parascending is possible in 'textile' Cap d'Agde.

At Port Ambonne and Port Nature there are several swimming pools charging entrance fees or giving free entrance if you use their bars or restaurants. The pools at Port Soleil and Port Venus are for residents only.

Aqualand ('textile') was Europe's first leisure-pool complex. It covers nine acres with a giant winding waterslide, a straight one for super-fast rides, a river, a wave-pool and an adventure pool – remember to bring a costume!

Perfect holiday base

You have a broad choice of places to visit, either by car, by public transport (bus or train), or on one of our guided excursions.

Here is a selection of what you can do:

- Explore the old town of Agde, with its weekly market, or enjoy the 'son et lumière', highlighting its fascinating history.
- Visit the medieval citadels of Carcassonne or Aigues-Mortes, or the ancient village of St Guilhem.
- Explore the Tarn gorges, the Cirque de Navacelles, or the Grottes de Clamouse.
- Visit the Camargue (famous for its white horses and wild black bulls).
- See Béziers' flower market and the famous 9-lock 'staircase' on the Canal du Midi.
- Take a cruise on a restaurant boat on the Canal du Midi.

- Visit the Roman city of Nîmes (with the best-preserved amphitheatre and temple in France).
- Visit the fishing port of Sète, perhaps dining in a harbour-side restaurant.
- Visit Montpellier for its lively atmosphere, excellent indoor shopping centre and dozens of good-value restaurants.
- Wine lovers can enjoy tastings in Corbières or Minervois vineyards.
- Visit Pézenas, the 'Versailles of the Languedoc', a picturesque 17C town where the dramatist Molière worked.
- Taste and smell the wonderful flavours of Noilly-Prat vermouth, produced at Marseillan.
- Enjoy the spectacle of the traditional water jousts in Agde or Sète.

How to get to Cap d'Agde

By air

This is the quickest and most convenient way to travel. For flight details, please see pages 72-73.

Club Europe

For an extra special start to your holiday, why not take advantage of our low supplementary charge for Club Class travel? This gives you access to the Club Lounge at Gatwick, wider seats and more leg room, superior in-flight meals, and free drinks.

By rail

Thanks to Eurostar, we can offer London to Agde by rail in less than 8 hrs or 7 hrs from Ashford (Kent).

The Eurostar leaves Waterloo International Station in central London and speeds through the Kentish countryside, with a brief stop at Ashford, before the 25 minute journey through the tunnel under the Channel. On the French side, it soon reaches its top speed of 186 mph again.

At Lille, you change onto the TGV train (an express running on its own high speed track) to travel through the rolling French countryside and the Rhône valley to Agde. Peng transport meets you for the 15 minute ride to glorious Cap d'Agde.

- Daytime travel – enjoy the scenery, relax
- Opportunity to stretch your legs
- Clean toilets and washbasins on board
- Air-conditioned carriages

Bon appétit!

Cap d'Agde has many traditional French restaurants, offering choices from simple 3-course set menus to full-scale gastronomic feasts for that special occasion. Nearly every restaurant offers a good value 'plat du jour' (dish of the day). Other restaurants reflect the cosmopolitan atmosphere.

L'Horizon at the beach end of Port Nature offers excellent French food indoors and out, with a magnificent sea view.

La Poissonnerie in Port Ambonne is both an excellent fish restaurant and a wet fish shop offering all the local fish; fresh tuna steaks are very popular as are oysters, mussels and prawns.

The Bagatelle in Port Nature opposite the Waiki pool is very popular. It serves quality French cuisine at reasonable prices in a friendly atmosphere.

The Mexican restaurant in Port Nature serves chilli, tacos and enchiladas. But it's their Tequila Sunrises that will put a glow on your cheeks.

Baskin-Robbins at Port Nature has an amazing choice of ice creams.

For self-catering, you have a great choice of take-aways and ready prepared foods: lobster thermidor, moules marinière, steak and chips or a roasted chicken fresh from the rotisserie; even burger and fries taste better in France!

You'll find an abundance of local produce too. Fresh seasonal fruit and vegetables come from nearby farms. Every supermarket sells local wines which you can buy by the bottle or in volume. Try working your way through some of France's 370 different cheeses from the selection in Cap d'Agde's crèmeries.

An inexpensive lunch idea is a selection of cheeses, a few olives – black, green, stuffed or spicy – together with a baguette still warm from the oven, washed down with a glass of the local red. C'est magnifique!

Cap d'Agde borders on France's largest wine producing area, offering an amazing range of good quality and good value wines.

Local whites

Probably the most popular white wine is Picpoul de Pinet. It's crisp and dry, and served in most of the restaurants and bars of Cap d'Agde. Seek out the sparkling version! Clairette de Languedoc is also deservedly popular. Delicate and fruity, it is one of only three local vintage wines.

Local reds and rosés

Many of these are very reasonably priced. Faugères is dark and full-bodied and another of the region's vintage wines. Minervois wines come from the area between Carcassonne and Béziers. They are warm reds (plus crisp whites and good rosés).

Corbières wines vary a lot: the full-bodied reds come from hillside vineyards, the lighter fruitier reds come from the coastal plain. Fitou is very popular and often excellent value. The more expensive ones have a fuller smoother flavour with a very recognisable bouquet.

Liquid sunshine

Many popular Muscat wines come from this region. They are medium sweet and can be drunk as an apéritif or with dessert. Many are flavoured with herbs, mint or lemon, or even geranium or orange. This wine is an ideal souvenir of the area.

- Reserved seats
- Buffet car with snack meals
- First Class available, supp. £85 (return). Benefits are: complimentary champagne, on-board meals and refreshments, waiter service, spacious seats
- Chance to break your journey at Lille: if you do not come from London or the south-east, start your holiday on Friday in the afternoon and in two hours you are in Lille, a cosmopolitan town of Flemish houses and cobbled streets. We can book a room for you at an hotel near the station for £50 per night. Continue on Saturday for the five hour journey to Agde.

By your own car

You can reach Cap d'Agde by motorway in 12-13 hours from the French Channel ports. Alternatively, the Motorail terminal at Avignon is less than two hours from Cap d'Agde. We supply a detailed route description with your travel documents.

Our self-drive holiday prices are particularly good value for families with children and small parties. You may take as long as you like for the journey, but lettings in high season are usually Saturday to Saturday only. You can include some hotel touring (see French Stopover Hotels, page 61) or book a twin-centre holiday: popular choices are either Aphrodite or Oasis at Port Leucate (pages 12-13) or La Jenny on the Côte d'Argent (pages 14-15).

Pengmobile

For air and rail holidays, we deliver your luggage to a point near your accommodation on arrival and collect it from there on your departure.

Porterage is not available, so if carrying luggage is a problem consider travelling light!

Staying at Cap d'Agde

Naturist Cap d'Agde is made up of several areas, each with its own identity (see map below). Most facilities are open to all Cap d'Agde residents.

We can offer studios, apartments and 'villas' in Port Nature, Héliopolis, Port Soleil and Hélio-Village. As all accommodation in Cap d'Agde is privately owned, styles and furnishings vary quite considerably. Also, owners may add or change items during the season.

Accommodation

Our accommodation is fully furnished and well-maintained. The kitchenette is fully equipped, with electric hob, fridge, pots, pans, crockery and cutlery; some have coffee makers and microwaves. Bed linen, blankets,

PLEASE NOTE...

Space in standard accommodation is rather limited at full occupancy. We recommend you take a larger unit, using the empty sleeping places for additional space and comfort.

bath mats, tea- and hand towels are provided and changed weekly. (Beach and bath towels are not provided.) Most of the accommodation has a balcony or patio.

Cabines

Cap d'Agde studios usually have 'cabines': these are sleeping areas (usually in alcoves or recesses), just big enough to take beds.

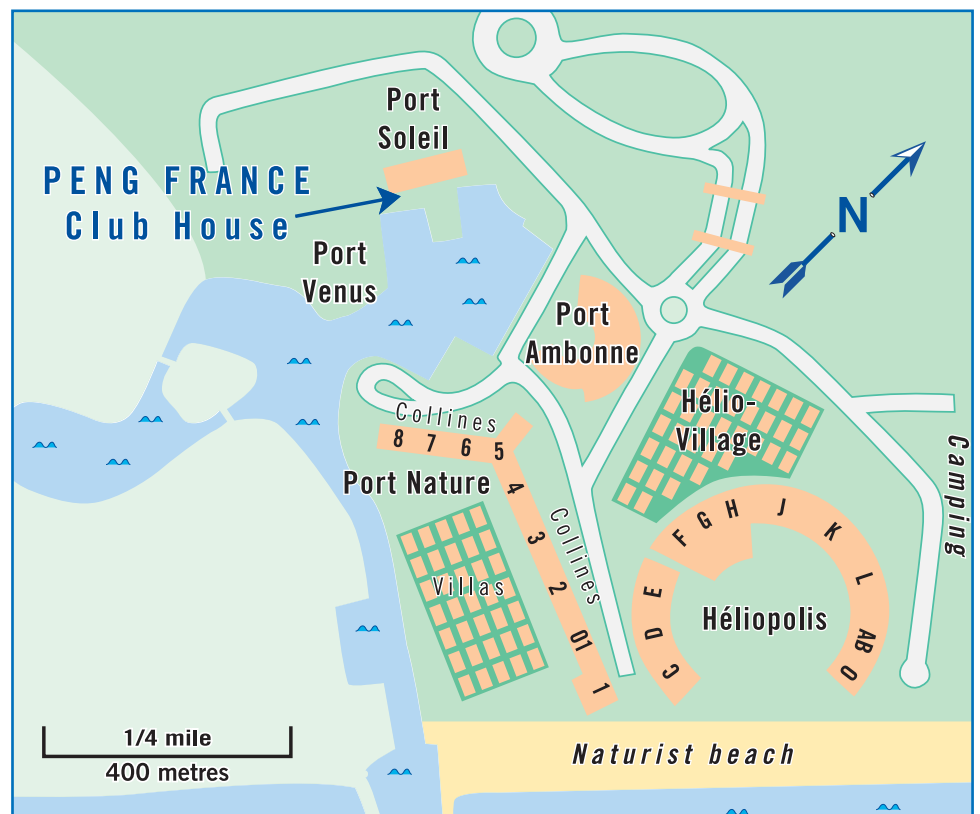

IMPORTANT

For space reasons, the accommodation descriptions have been condensed. You can request any particular combination of facilities (e.g. 'ground floor in quiet location' or 'top floor with lift') by mentioning it in the Special Requests section of the booking form.

Accommodation codes

The prefix (PN, H, PS, HV, PV or PA) indicates the location. The suffix tells you the direction the accommodation faces. N is north to north-east facing, S is south to south-west, P is marina, and E is east. (The sea is east!)

The number in the accommodation codes indicates the total number of sleeping places.

The Cap d'Agde Naturist Complex

Port Nature (PN)

Port Nature consists of a long L-shaped apartment block extending inland from the beach. The building is split into eight 'Collines' (sections) with No. 1 at the beach end and No. 8 facing a lawn area and the distant sea, or the pleasure port. There are also around 100 'villas'. Port Nature has shopping centres in Collines 1 & 5.

Héliopolis (H)

Héliopolis is horseshoe-shaped, with the beach at the open end. It has its own shopping arcade.

On the southern curve are Blocks C, D and E; Blocks F, G and H are at the base of the horseshoe, above the shops, facing the beach.

Hélio-Village (HV)

This is a little village of terraced 'villas' between Héliopolis and Port Ambonne.

Port Soleil (PS)

Port Soleil has a village character, enhanced by the absence of through traffic, and its own private swimming pool. The accommodation is similar to that at Héliopolis. It has a small parade with several shops and restaurants, and the Peng France office and Club House.

Port Venus (PV)

Port Venus is situated alongside Port Soleil in the quieter area of Cap d'Agde near the naturist marina. The apartments are served by a lift and guests enjoy free use of the Port Venus swimming pool.

The one-bedroom villas are laid out in rows in the attractive gardens. The restaurants and shops of Port Soleil as well as the Peng France Clubhouse are nearby.

Port Ambonne (PA)

Port Ambonne is a semi-circular building situated near the marina. The apartments are on the higher floors. The ground floor has a selection of shops, restaurants and bars with a cash dispenser at the bank.

There is also a swimming pool (fee payable locally).

Lille Stopovers

It is an early start on Saturday from London or the South-East - you may wish to consider starting your journey on Friday and spend a night in the cosmopolitan town of Lille. We can book a room for you at an hotel near the station for £50 per night. You can then make the 5-hour rail journey to Agde on the Saturday.

Travel Notes...

We may have flights from other airports than those shown. Please enquire by 'phone.

Important note: When you contact us to make a booking, we act as agents for the relevant carrier which will be disclosed on your documentation. A contract exists under which we accept responsibility for the provision of all the services described in our invoice.

Luggage allowance is 20 kg on all the flights listed. Flight details are subject to change. We reserve the right to substitute alternative carriers and/or aircraft types if necessary after we have confirmed your booking. Any such change does not provide grounds for cancellation without penalty.

Destination Advice

The Foreign and Commonwealth Office Travel Advice Unit may have news about your destination. You can check on BBC2 Ceefax (page 470), their website at www.fco.gov.uk or by phone on 0845 850 2829 or 020 7008 1500.

The Department of Health website has information of use to travellers:
<http://www.dh.gov.uk/PolicyAndGuidance/HealthAdviceForTravellers/fs/en>.

Passports

You should hold a current burgundy passport, ideally with at least six months to run (essential for the United States). If you hold a non UK passport, please check with the consulate of your destination country.

purpleparking For airport parking we would recommend purpleparking who offer park & ride and meet & greet services.

For further details look on the web at www.purpleparking.com/peng/ or phone 0845 450 0808, quoting ref. 46926.

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract: and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

La Jenny

- Self-catering studios and apartments set in 300 acres of pine forest
- Golden sandy naturist beach, warmed by the Gulf Stream
- Immense outdoor swimming pool, 10 tennis courts, archery and aerobics
- On-site restaurant and supermarket. Occasional entertainment
- Ideal resort for active families
- Supervised Kids' Club (2-11 years) and Teenagers' Club (12-18 years)
- Within easy reach of Médoc wine villages and châteaux

The La Jenny Naturist Village opened in 1983 in a remote pine forest of nearly 300 acres. It is a 'young' resort but has a wide range of activities and facilities for all ages, yet the detached bungalows and studio blocks are in quiet residential areas which form the shapes of daisies around central islands. Total capacity is for only 2,500 residents. A close-to-nature concept is evident throughout, and all the staff are naturists.

Location

Away from it all, La Jenny is situated 40 miles west of Bordeaux on France's Côte d'Argent, where the warm Gulf Stream ensures a surprisingly mild climate. The nearest village is Le Porge, six miles away.

Accommodation

All our accommodation at La Jenny is fully equipped for self-catering with pots and pans and modern crockery and cutlery – and a tea-pot and kettle on request! Bed linen is not included, but can be hired locally. (No towels whatsoever are available!)

Outside, all accommodation has a wooden verandah furnished with a table and chairs, and a cold shower.

Bengali I Studios (for up to 2 people)

Semi-detached single storey units which comprise a sleeping area with a couch, converting into a double bed, kitchenette with 2-ring hob, fridge, sink and wall units, and a bathroom with toilet, shower and wash-basin, all with hot and cold running water.

Fregate (up to 3 people)

Semi-detached single storey units which have a separate bedroom with a double bed and wardrobe. The couch in the living room converts into a single bed. All other facilities are similar to those in the Bengali I Studios but there is also an oven in the kitchenette.

Tourterelle Bungalows (up to 6 people)

Built of pine, these modest bungalows blend with their surroundings.

There is a living/dining room with a refectory table and benches, a large sofa which converts into a double bed, kitchenette with 2-ring electric hob and fridge, bathroom with shower, toilet and wash-basin – all with hot and cold running water, and a bedroom with a double bed and wardrobe. Upstairs on the mezzanine, there is a further bedroom with twin beds.

Fauvette Bungalows (up to 5 people)

Detached bungalows comprising a living/dining room with sofa which converts into a single bed, bedroom with a double bed, further small bedroom with bunk beds, kitchenette including 2-ring electric hob, oven and fridge, shower, wash-basin and separate toilet.

Bengali II (up to 4 people)

Semi-detached bungalow with separate bedroom (double bed and wardrobe), cabine with 2 bunk beds, large sitting/dining area with electric heating, kitchenette with 4-ring hob, oven, dishwasher and breakfast bar, shower, toilet and wash-basin. Large patio.

Larger types of accommodation are also available on request.

The beach

The golden sandy beach is a pleasant 20 minute – naturist – walk away, through the endless pine forest (nature conservation area) and over the sand dunes. By bicycle, it takes only a few minutes to the large bicycle park behind the beach.

This part of France is very sparsely populated. Therefore, this fine naturist beach is almost open-ended for walking, although life guards supervise only one section of the beach. There are cold showers near the beach.

La Jenny Club

La Jenny is for members only so temporary membership is obligatory. We automatically arrange this for you and add the cost (see price table) to your holiday invoice. Membership gives you access to the following facilities, mainly from June 18 to September 10:

- magnificent pool of nearly 1,200 sq. yds. – heated to 25°C
- 10 tennis courts, a training wall
- table tennis and volleyball
- karaoke
- supervised clubs for kids (2-11 yrs) and teenagers (12-18 yrs)

The following activities are also available (when there are sufficient participants): gymnastics, yoga, archery, aerobics, keep-fit, water polo, concerts, dances and shows.

Tennis lessons, diving lessons in the pool, sauna, fitness centre, and baby-sitting are available at a nominal charge, as are golfing and golf lessons on a four hole training course.

Facilities

There is a supermarket and greengrocer's, a restaurant, pizzeria and bar, bicycle hire, international phone boxes and washing machines. Credit cards are accepted in the supermarket, restaurant, bar and for the rental deposit (minimum €15).

Bicycles may be hired at reasonable rates. (Seats for toddlers can be fitted for a small charge).

Excursions

Excursions by bicycle to local points of interest: maps of cycle paths are available from La Jenny's Information Office.

The following are within easy reach with your own car:

Arcachon and Cap Ferret are renowned for their speciality restaurants, serving locally farmed oysters, fish and duck.

SPECIAL OFFERS*

Pyla Sand Dune is the highest sand dune in Europe – 374ft.

The Médoc is one of France's most famous claret-producing areas.

Bordeaux is the capital of Aquitaine and an old-established major trading centre, owing its prosperity to the famous red and white wines of the area. Situated on the Garonne river, it has France's most beautiful bridge. There are spacious squares, old churches and several museums and theatres.

Travel information

For a holiday at La Jenny, it is essential to have a car both to get there and for use during your stay. Therefore, we usually offer these holidays on a self-drive basis.

The journey from Le Havre, Cherbourg, Caen or St Malo to La Jenny takes a comfortable day's driving, whereas you should allow at least one and a half days from Calais.

A detailed route description from the Channel ports to La Jenny is included with our travel documents. On arrival, keys are available from 17:00 hrs. Reception closes at 19:00 hrs (24:00 hrs in July and August) – telephone La Jenny if you are delayed on the day of arrival.

During the period July 8 to August 26, all rentals must be Saturday to Saturday.

- Self-catering studios, apartments and tents, nestling among pine trees
- A mile and a half of beach reserved for nude sunbathing and swimming
- Large indoor heated pool. Health centre: sauna, massage and hydrotherapy
- Ideal family resort. Occasional entertainment, daily in high season
- Open-air fun pool with water slide
- On-site restaurants and supermarkets. Sports facilities: tennis, volleyball etc.
- Short drive to the world-famous Claret vineyards and Châteaux

Euronat opened in 1976, a few miles up the road from Montalivet which had just started bursting at its seams. Larger than its neighbour, but with fewer holidaymakers, Euronat is not spoilt by overcrowding. It is a well established naturist holiday and residential resort with an excellent reputation. Naturism is compulsory, weather permitting.

It is built in extensive grounds among pine trees and on sandy soil – which makes an ideal beach just across the dunes and also makes grapes grow well in the vast vineyards behind. This region of France is called the Médoc and there are many excellent local wines of the same name. The wine villages of St Estephe and Margaux, and the vineyards of Château Lafite and Château Mouton-Rothschild, are just a short drive across the headland.

Location

Euronat is situated in the south-west of France on the Bay of Biscay, 60 miles north of Bordeaux. The Gulf Stream flows along this coast and provides the mild climate in this area.

Accommodation

All Euronat accommodation is clean, equipped to a high standard and provides more than average floor space per person.

Studios (for up to 4 people)

These studios are built in single storey blocks of four self-contained units. They each comprise a living/dining room with a double bed in a partitioned-off sleeping area. (Studios Type 2 have a separate bedroom.) A settee converts into a third bed, and a further bed is stored under the settee to put up a fourth person in all studios.

The kitchenette is well equipped with a 2-ring electric cooker and oven, a fridge and all the necessary utensils for self-catering. There is a shower/toilet, an individual electric water heater and an outside covered sitting area.

Landes Bungalows (up to 6 people)

The wooden bungalows have similar facilities and equipment to those in the studios. However, there are two separate bedrooms (one double and one twin) and two convertible settees in the living/dining room.

Landais Bungalows (up to 6 people)

Similar to Landes type, but with a higher standard specification.

Tents (up to 4 people)

A section of the park-like grounds is reserved for camping. In this area, there is a village of spacious ready-sited tents. They comprise two sleeping compartments with twin beds (linen provided), ground sheets and a chest of drawers each, a wardrobe, a living area with electric lighting and a kitchen corner fully equipped for self-catering, including a 2-ring butagas hob, fridge and pots, pans, crockery and cutlery. Large sections of the awning can be rolled up for extra ventilation. The nearby sanitary installations are kept scrupulously clean and have lots of showers with hot and cold water.

PENG SPECIALS!

Peng Travel clients have FREE use of the magnificent indoor swimming pool and 10% discount for tennis, steam baths, jacuzzi and sauna.

Facilities

The shopping centre is built well away from the residential areas and comprises three supermarkets, four restaurants and a snack-bar, a take-away (French-style), butcher, bakery, fishmonger, off-licence, boutique, bank, launderette, newsagent, bicycle hire, amusement arcade, and also a sports shop and direct-dial public telephones.

Euronat is one of the few naturist centres in Europe to have an indoor heated swimming pool. It measures 95ft by 40ft and has become one of the main attractions. There is also an open-air fun pool with water slide.

Euronat also has a purpose-built health centre with qualified staff offering sauna, relaxation massage, muscle toning, gymnastics, aerobics, UVA sun bed and hydrotherapy facilities (jacuzzi with seaweed extract, hydro-massage with sea water, algotherapy, clay masks and high pressure jet showers). A resident doctor prescribes individual courses of 'Figure and Nature' treatment packages.

Sports activities include tennis, volleyball, riding, archery, boules, minigolf, table tennis, football, judo and basketball. There are also handicraft workshops.

A free kindergarten operates in July and August for children aged 3 to 7 years.

Entertainment

Various sports competitions are held from time to time, as are party nights with audience participation and barbecues. During July and August concerts, shows and dancing evenings are held in the big top and (mainly) French language films are also shown. There are restaurants and wine bars in the vicinity, outside the grounds.

The beach

One and a half miles of the almost endless sandy beach are reserved for nude swimming and sunbathing. At times, the Atlantic produces waves several feet high, turning the beach into a surfers' paradise. Lifeguards are on duty from mid-June until mid-September, and there is a first-aid post.

SPECIAL OFFERS!

Reductions of 15%, 25% and 30% are available for certain two and three week stays. These are reflected in our prices on page 60 where they are marked with an asterisk.

Excursions

Whilst there are normally no organised excursions, a drive through the vineyards ('châteaux') and a visit to some of the wine cellars are worthwhile.

Travel information

For a holiday at Euronat it is essential to have a car both to get there and during your stay, so we are offering these holidays on a self-drive basis.

The journey from Le Havre, Cherbourg or St Malo to Euronat takes a comfortable day's driving, whereas you should allow at least one and a half days from Calais.

A detailed route description from the Channel ports to Euronat is included with your travel documents. Arrivals should be after 16:00 hrs and departures before 10:00 hrs.

All rentals must be Saturday to Saturday.

Travel Notes...

We may have flights from other airports than those shown. Please enquire by 'phone.

Important note: When you contact us to make a booking, we act as agents for the relevant carrier which will be disclosed on your documentation. A contract exists under which we accept responsibility for the provision of all the services described in our invoice.

Luggage allowance is 20 kg on all the flights listed. Flight details are subject to change. We reserve the right to substitute alternative carriers and/or aircraft types if necessary after we have confirmed your booking. Any such change does not provide grounds for cancellation without penalty.

Destination Advice

The Foreign and Commonwealth Office Travel Advice Unit may have news about your destination. You can check on BBC2 Ceefax (page 470), their website at www.fco.gov.uk or by phone on 0845 850 2829 or 020 7008 1500.

The Department of Health website has information of use to travellers:
<http://www.dh.gov.uk/PolicyAndGuidance/HealthAdviceForTravellers/fs/en>.

Passports

You should hold a current burgundy passport, ideally with at least six months to run (essential for the United States). If you hold a non UK passport, please check with the consulate of your destination country.

purpleparking For airport parking we would recommend purpleparking who offer park & ride and meet & greet services.

For further details look on the web at www.purpleparking.com/peng/ or phone 0845 450 0808, quoting ref. 46926.

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in table 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract: and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

French Stopover Hotels

Under a special arrangement with the 2- and 3-star Campanile and Kyriad Hotels, Peng Travel are able to pre-book accommodation in their hotels at special rates en route to and from your holiday destination.

The basic price is £36, including a booking fee, for a room in price category A for two adults and one child up to 16 years. The price for a third adult is £7.

Not included are 'Taxe de Séjour' (about €0.5 to €1 per person per night) or breakfast from a delicious buffet (about €6.50 per person, children under 16 free) payable direct to the hotel.

Not all locations have category A hotels. For higher categories, supplements range from £9 to £42. We will advise you of the amount of the supplement when we confirm your booking.

Campanile and Kyriad hotels are part of the Louvre Hotels group, a fast-growing international chain of conveniently located, value-for-money hotels with over five hundred properties in France.

Reservations

Reservations are held until 23:00 hrs. Later arrivals need to be notified by telephone on the day. No refunds for 'no show'.

In order to make a reservation, simply select the location(s) of your proposed en route accommodation from the map on this page and then list your requirements on your booking form. (Any reservations requested at a later stage will attract a booking amendment fee of £6). The cost of such accommodation will then be added to your invoice and is payable nine weeks before your departure.

LOUVRE HOTELS

Vritomartis

- ✳ Hotel accommodation with half board included, family resort
- ✳ Quiet location set in lush and peaceful gardens
- ✳ Occasional entertainment, including Cretan/Greek evenings
- ✳ Range of excursions – Samaria, Imbros and Aradena Gorges and other hikes, Chania, Frangokastello and full-day nude boat trips
- ✳ Hotel shuttle bus to Chora Sfakion several times a day
- ✳ Particularly attractive in May and September/October

Hotel Vritomartis is a colourful oasis in a rocky wilderness. The gardens are an abundance of colour, particularly in May, with geraniums, oleander, bougainvillea and mulberry, pine, eucalyptus, olive and palm trees. With Europe's southernmost point being on Crete, the weather here is ideal even for early and late season holidays.

Hotel Vritomartis ('sweet virgin') is named after the Minoan goddess of hunting. It opened in 1989 and has a total of 85 rooms.

Location

Situated on the south-west coast of the island, Chora Sfakion (pop. 200, also known as Sfakia) is the nearest village to Hotel Vritomartis. It used to be a quiet fishing village, but is now a port for the ferries to the remote beaches/villages of Loutro and Agia Roumeli and a transit point for many tourists. There are several restaurants, souvenir shops, supermarkets, a post office and a cash dispenser.

Accommodation

There is the 3-storey hotel building with a lift, and 2-storey pavilions with garden rooms. In the main hotel are singles and twins with mountain view and standard twins or doubles with side sea view or direct sea view. In the pavilions are twins or doubles with garden or direct sea view. Rooms for three or four people are available – with direct sea view only.

All rooms are air-conditioned and have shower and wc, balcony or terrace, radio and telephone. There is daily maid service: towels are changed daily, bed linen twice a week.

Naturism

Naturism is usual in the grounds, around the glorious pool and on the beach, but not inside the main building or anywhere between sunset and sunrise.

Facilities

The multi-lingual reception and information desk changes money, calls taxis, orders newspapers and medicines and loans out table games. Safe deposit boxes and small fridges are available for rent. Extras bills may be settled with credit cards.

There is a games/reading room with satellite TV and a large bar/lounge with open-air terrace. The dining room is normally used only for breakfast whilst buffet dinners are served on the open-air terrace.

The (nude) poolside taverna/snack bar serves a good choice of lunchtime meals and drinks, including beer in German-size steins.

The (textile) mini-market stocks beach articles, toiletries, books, souvenirs, cigarettes, sweets and snacks. Other facilities are a small children's playground, a floodlit tennis court, table tennis, boules and garden chess.

The pool & beach

The large pool is the centre-piece of the hotel, together with a small paddling pool. They are surrounded by well-kept lawns with lush vegetation and an ample supply of sun beds (no need to reserve!), umbrellas and several cold showers.

The private naturist pebble Filaki Beach is just 900 yards away: if you do not feel like a walk, the hotel's free shuttle bus operates several times a day. There is a charge for sun beds and umbrellas. The beach bar serves snack meals at lunchtime.

We recommend the use of swimming sandals to protect your feet against underwater rocks, sea urchins etc.

Entertainment

A trio plays dancing music on the bar terrace three nights a week. There is also a Cretan/Greek dance evening every fortnight.

Excursions

Crete is an island with a most fascinating history, culture and scenery. Civilisation began here 4,000 years ago and was then wiped out by some sort of holocaust. It is the birthplace of Zeus, king of the gods. The south-west corner is particularly scenic with tall mountains, gorges of great beauty and rich plains thick with vegetation. Car hire is strongly recommended.

Many visitors go hiking in the mountains (bring a small rucksack to carry drinking water and other provisions) to admire the wide variety of flowers and wildlife, especially birds of prey. Crete is a photographer's paradise.

The Samaria Gorge is the largest gorge in Europe, displaying awesome beauty, magnificent scenery and unique colours. The 12-mile route down it takes approximately five hours and lets you admire the 'Iron Gates', the narrowest passage of which is only about 10ft wide, with sides rising to 1,800ft. Bring strong walking shoes!

The well-preserved and impressive Fran-gokastello ('Castle of the Franks') was built by the Venetians in 1371 as a defence against pirates and Cretan rebels.

Chania is the former capital of the island. It has a picturesque Venetian harbour surrounded by excellent fish tavernas, bars, cafes and restaurants and a maze of alleys. Plentiful shopping opportunities include a traditional craft and busy indoor market.

SPECIAL OFFERS!

14 nights for the price of 12 for arrivals on May 1, 8, 15; June 12, 19; July 10, 17; August 21, 28; October 13, 20.

Mountain view rooms only: 14 nights for the price of 10 and 7 nights for the price of 5 for arrivals on May 1, October 2 and 9.

These reductions have been reflected in the price tables on page 67.

Plakias is the nearest larger village on the south coast, some 30 miles to the east. It used to be a huge sandy bay where the locals from the nearby mountains came to fish. Now it is a fully fledged holiday resort with tavernas, hotels, souvenir shops, supermarkets, a chemist's and a fairly lively nightlife.

Nude boat trips

The first takes in Palm Beach for sightseeing and hiking, continues to Souda Bay for swimming and lunch, then to Plakias for sightseeing and shopping.

The other, cruises to St Paul Beach for sightseeing and on to Domata Beach, accessible by sea only, for lunch. Stop at Sweetwater Bay and wash off the salt in sweet-water holes.

CAR HIRE OFFER

Car hire is available from and to Chania airport: Group B car (Daewoo Matiz, or similar) with air-conditioning, unlimited mileage, third party insurance, CDW, VAT and airport surcharge. From and to the airport, 1 week £48, 2 weeks £186. From and to the hotel, 1 week £165, 2 weeks £305.

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract: and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

Hidden Beach Resort

- ✳ New 5-star deluxe, 100% naturist, hideaway
- ✳ Nudity usual, day and night, in all areas
- ✳ Adults only, singles no problem
- ✳ All-inclusive facilities, including gourmet meals and room service
- ✳ Themed dinner and party evenings
- ✳ Year-round holidays
- ✳ Exciting excursions: swim with dolphins, visit Mayan archaeological sites such as Tulum or Chichen Itza

Hidden Beach is located on the Yucatan Peninsula of Mexico on the famous Riviera Maya, facing the warm Caribbean. It lies one hour south of downtown Cancun and the international airport.

Hidden Beach Resort

This 5-star deluxe 'clothing optional' (nude) resort opened in 2002 and was built as a secluded hideaway in soft Mexican Hacienda style. 'The resort may be hidden, but has been created for guests with nothing to hide.' It boasts just 42 ocean-front jacuzzi suites in two two-storey buildings. They are set amidst exotic gardens full of flowering hibiscus and give the feel of a luxury club.

The luxury service starts with a personalised check-in and a glass of champagne whilst your luggage is taken to your accommodation; a bottle of sparkling white wine awaits you in your room. The numerous and friendly staff create an atmosphere of further luxury.

Accommodation

All suites have a super king-size bed, air-conditioning, ceiling fan, direct-dial telephone, satellite television, DVD and compact disk player (DVD library at the exclusive concierge reception), safe deposit box, coffeemaker, mini-bar stocked daily with beer, mineral water and soft drinks, spirits dispenser with whisky, vodka, tequila and rum, large bathroom with shower and wc, hair dryer, plush bathrobes and an ironing board and iron (on request). A private balcony or patio is equipped with two sun loungers and a hammock.

The 24 jacuzzi suites are on the first and second floors. All 18 swim-up suites on the ground floor have direct access from the patio to the man-made 'lazy river' connecting to the pool. Each patio has in-river seating and a coffee table.

Gourmet food & drink (all-inclusive)

The air-conditioned La Vista Restaurant serves gourmet meals à la carte and buffet style: full American breakfast, lunch, afternoon snacks with fresh coffee and pastries, dinner and midnight gourmet bites. Most guests chose to eat on the outside terrace, of course au naturel. The C'est La Vie Bar is the social centre of the resort: it has a wet swim-up side with stools submerged in the swimming pool, and a dry side. The Vida Loca Disco Bar is the popular open-air nightspot above the restaurant, open until 02:00 hrs. Weekly themed evenings are arranged. The Moonlight Bar is only open in the evening.

All bars serve premium brand alcoholic drinks, exotic cocktails and fine house wines as well as soft drinks. Room service is available 24 hours.

The pool & beach

The free-form pool is so warm that many guests spend all day chatting in the 'conversation end' or sitting at the swim-up bar. Sun loungers and floating mattresses are plentiful.

Between the pool and the beach there is also a giant hot tub where guests tend to finish the day. Beach towels are freely available on a self-service basis.

The fine white sand on the private man-made beach is kept spotlessly clean and even sports stylish ashtrays. It is lined by unique sunbathing platforms with mattresses, thatched roofs and retractable white curtains affording shade and/or privacy. There are several camouflaged showers to wash off the sand from the beach before entering the pool area. Massage in the open air on the beach is available at an extra charge.

For sea bathing in the protected coral reef, 'jellies' are recommended. It is ideal for snorkelling.

Other facilities

Use of the fitness centre and the internet facilities is free.

The adjoining 'textile' El Dorado Resort is under the same management and offers all its facilities to the guests of Hidden Beach, including speciality restaurants, a large theatre for evening entertainment, fitness centre, sauna and steam baths, land and water sports – bicycles, tennis, paddleboats, kayaks, snorkelling, water polo, beach volleyball and ceramic painting, car rental and tours desks and a gift shop.

There is an extra charge for spa treatments, laundry and dry cleaning, fax service and a shuttle service to the cosmopolitan town of Playa del Carmen, a 25-minute ride away. Just a few minutes away is the Puerto Aventuras Golf Club.

Activities

An entertainer organises a programme of daily activities and beach sports, including volleyball and introductory scuba diving lessons in the pool. There is table tennis, a pool table and a darts board. The manager holds a weekly cocktail party.

Tulum and Xel-Ha

On limestone cliffs overlooking the Caribbean, Tulum is the only Mayan fortress built by the sea. The walled city (known as the City of the Dawn) was once the main port to gather goods from as far as Tabasco and Honduras and includes fascinating ruins of several temples. The Xel-Ha ('where waters are born') eco-park is the world's largest natural aquarium and a unique phenomenon that combines salt water from the sea with fresh water from underground rivers.

Chichen Itza

This is the most important city and the most famous archaeological site of the Mayan civilisation: climb up the main pyramid to experience this remarkable construction that directly reflects the Mayan solar calendar. Also explore the well-preserved ruins of the Ball Court, Observatory, Temple of the Warriors and the Sacred Wall.

Afterwards, refresh yourself by swimming (costume required!) in the transparent waters at Cenote Ik-Il. ('Cenotes' are sweet-water deposits or sinkholes, produced by subterranean rivers which came to the surface over the course of millions of years.)

Swim with the dolphins

This is a once-in-a-lifetime experience not to be missed: a one-hour programme (30 minutes of water time) to interact with the dolphins, including foot push, dorsal tow, dolphin kiss and free time to swim with them.

Jungle tour

Drive your own 2-seater jet-ski on a guided tour of the jungle, mangroves and cenotes: explore ample pools of fresh water amidst a setting of orchids and multi-coloured birds; They are the entrance to a labyrinth of caves and flooded caverns.

Playa del Carmen

Playa del Carmen has developed from a small fishing village to the largest town on the Riviera Maya with restaurants and nightlife and world-class shopping – designer clothes, silver, jewellery and, in the colourful market, ceramics, leather goods, hammocks and native paintings.

Desire Resort & Spa

- ✳ Excellent 4-star resort for both nudists and hedonists
- ✳ Mixed-sex couples only (and no kids!)
- ✳ All-inclusive facilities – food, drink and entertainment programme
- ✳ Be pampered in the extensive spa facilities
- ✳ Beautiful white sandy beach with safe swimming
- ✳ Year-round holidays
- ✳ Exciting excursions: swim with the dolphins; visit the 1,000 year old Mayan sites at Tulum or Chichen Itza

The Desire Resort & Spa is an exciting 'lifestyle' adventure for mixed-sex couples: renew your passion, soak up the sun, have fun, let go and be the person you have always wanted to be. Meet like-minded people!

Desire Resort & Spa

The 4-star all-inclusive resort opened in 2003 and is one of the best nude holiday resorts we know. It is set in private grounds between the turquoise of the sea and the thick green, low-level, jungle and is designed to resemble a traffic-free village amidst swaying coconut palm trees and exotic jungle plants.

The resort effectively operates on a nude basis, except for the restaurants and wherever else food is served, and at the Melange Lobby Bar.

Location

Desire is located on the Yucatan Peninsula of Mexico on the famous Riviera Maya, facing the warm Caribbean. It lies just 20 minutes south of downtown Cancun and the international airport. The cosmopolitan town of Playa del Carmen is only a taxi ride away.

Accommodation

All rooms have 24-hour room service, mini-bar with soft drinks and beer, a CD player, and bathrobes and slippers.

All 98 Garden and Ocean View Rooms have king- or queen-size beds, air-conditioning, satellite TV and music selection, telephone, safe deposit box, coffee maker and bathroom with shower, wc and hairdryer.

The six Jacuzzi Suites comprise a queen-size bed, air-conditioning, satellite TV and DVD player, telephone, safe deposit box, coffee maker and a large bathroom with a jacuzzi big enough for two couples, candles and incense, daily fruit and cheese platter and a welcome bottle of sparkling wine.

The ten luxurious oceanfront Passion Suites are similar to the Jacuzzi Suites – with the large bathrooms and a jacuzzi for four people but have superior room features such as 4-poster beds and a sensual living room connecting with the bedroom. Continental breakfast and afternoon snacks are served daily on the private terrace. The in-room bar is stocked with premium spirits and mixes.

Meals

The main restaurant, El Arrecife – now air-conditioned – dominates the resort with its steeply pointed, thatched roof. Full breakfast and dinner are served here buffet-style. Only casual dress is required.

The air-conditioned Italian (Il Piacere), Asian (Suki) and international (Tentazione) restaurants serve fine cuisine à la carte. Dress code is elegantly casual (long trousers for men).

The Tentazione Bar by the main poolside serves a variety of grilled specialities and snacks at lunchtime. Bring a towel to dress!

Facilities

The focal point of the resort is the large freshwater nudist pool – with a shallow section for non-swimmers. There is an abundance of sun loungers and free beach towels are available. Most daytime activities, arranged by a team of entertainers, take place in and around this pool. These include introductory scuba-diving lessons.

The notorious nude rooftop Jacuzzi Lounge affords stunning views of the jungle on one side and the ocean on the other. It boasts a dry and wet (swim-up) bar in the 30-seater jacuzzi (36°C/97°F) and double-size sun beds! L'Alternative disco lounge/bar is the meeting place after dinner with themed evenings and impromptu entertainment. Dress sexily and sensually!

A tennis court, table tennis tables and the new Sports Bar with sports TV, darts and board games provide more active entertainments. The Logo Shop sells beach articles, toiletries, postcards, gifts and Mexican souvenirs. A jewellery shop selling silverware and souvenirs, car hire and tours desk and the Internet Room ($5 per half-hour) complete the facilities.

The spa

The extensive spa features an amazing traditional range of treatments – sauna, steam room, jacuzzi, gym and, for an extra charge, massage, sea-weed packs, facial treatments and a beauty parlour. Less traditional multi-couple treatments, including sparkling wine, are also on the 'menu.'

The beach

The glistening white sand fronts the whole of the resort. It is protected by the Coral Park reef abounding with brightly coloured tropical fish. A programme of non-motorised water sports, mainly based on kayaks, a catamaran and windsurfing boards is available. (For snorkelling, scuba-diving and fishing there is an extra charge, including a $2 environmental charge.)

'Hedonism'

The house rules are relaxed but discourage overt sexual activity in public areas. More private 'lifestyle' areas are the spectacular rooftop Jacuzzi Lounge and the playroom adjoining the disco bar. There is generally a happy co-existence between naturists and hedonists.

Sights & excursions

The staff at the tours desk will help you arrange excursions.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract: and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

It is your responsibility to comply with the house rules of your holiday resort(s), e.g. regarding photography.

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

Tour of Andalusia

- Half board in 3-star hotels throughout
- Five days touring and nine at Vera Playa
- See Granada, Cordoba, Seville, Gibraltar and more
- An opportunity to see many places of interest on a circular tour
- Entrance fees/guides included. Time for independent sightseeing
- Flamenco evening in Seville

This popular tour explores Andalusia, Spain's most southern region. En route, you visit the Moorish cities of Granada, Seville and Cordoba, and the British Rock of Gibraltar.

Andalusia is still very much influenced by the Moors, who first settled here whilst Europe was in the Dark Ages. The decorative 'azulejo' ceramic tiles (still used extensively) and the traditional tranquil courtyards were all introduced by them. (They also introduced rice and almonds to Europe.) Everywhere the sense of history is strong. You walk down medieval cobbled alleyways, passing tiny patios filled with citrus trees and flowers, glimpsing a world that's barely changed for 1,000 years.

Above all, this is a holiday of contrasts. The splendid craftsmanship of the palaces and cathedrals you visit is balanced by the natural beauty of the very varied landscapes. You travel past plantations of olive and orange trees, rocky mountains and forests, breathtaking cliffs and sandy beaches with the sea sparkling in the distance. Other highlights are visits to the old quarters of Cordoba and Seville, an Andalusian flamenco show, and a wine-tasting in the Anglo-Andalusian sherry capital, Jerez.

The Tour

Thursday – Arrival

Arrive at Almeria Airport where you will be met for the short transfer to Roquetas de Mar or Aguadulce for the first night – in a hotel of the Hoteles Playa Group.

Friday – Roquetas de Mar to Granada

Cross the Desert of Tabernas, the only desert in Europe and continue via Purullena (where over 2,000 people live in cave houses) and Guadix to Granada.

Visit the 14C Alhambra, the citadel of the Caliphs of Granada, perched on a hill overlooking the city. They engaged the finest craftsmen of the day to build a palace of great beauty (using only modest materials) and surrounded it with tranquil gardens and shaded courtyards. The nearby Generalife was the caliph's country estate.

Then on to the cathedral where in the Capilla Real (Royal Chapel) the Catholic monarchs, Ferdinand II of Aragon and Isabella of Castille, are buried. They reunited Spain through their marriage (1469) and the reconquest of the Moorish regions (in 1492).

Saturday – Granada via Cordoba to Seville

First stop at Cordoba for sightseeing. The heart of this ancient city – once one of the greatest in the Western world – is the Judería (the Jewish quarter). It remains much as it was 1,000 years ago, a labyrinth of narrow cobbled alleys with tiny workshops occupied by master silversmiths. Watch out for the little tucked away courtyards, filled with flowers, for which Cordoba is famous.

The Mezquita (the Grand Mosque), now a cathedral, is one of Islam's greatest legacies and the nearby medieval synagogue, whose walls are engraved with Hebrew script, is the only one left in Andalusia.

Then on to Seville, the regional capital, for two nights.

Sunday – In Seville

Morning free. Many of Seville's sights are close together in the former Jewish ghetto, Santa Cruz, just east of the cathedral. It is picturesque and compact, with hidden flower-decked patios, medieval alleyways, restaurants, tapas bars and smart boutiques.

Afternoon sightseeing tour of Seville. The cathedral – the largest in Spain – occupies the site of a mosque. It incorporates the 12C minaret, La Giralda, as its belfry and the Moorish 'Courtyard of the Oranges' as its cloister. Columbus is buried nearby. The Reales Alcazares (Royal Palace) is a richly decorated maze of sumptuous apartments and magnificent courtyards. The Spanish Royal Family still use the upper floor.

After dinner, a visit to a typical Andalusian flamenco show.

Monday – Seville via Jerez and Gibraltar to the Costa del Sol

First stop Jerez – the home of sherry and still a major wine-producing centre – dominated by the Anglo-Andalusian dynasties of Sandeman and Harvey. Subject to confirmation, you visit one of the famous bodegas ('cellars') and sample the local produce.

Next, we pay a brief visit to Gibraltar (passport required). Famous as a garrison town, it has Main Street, complete with British bobbies, pubs with British beer, and a Woolworths. We visit the Rock and the Caves of St Michael. The celebrated Barbary Apes were probably originally brought onto the Rock as pets by soldiers.

Then on to the Marbella/Estepona area for overnight.

Tuesday – Marbella/Estepona to Roquetas de Mar and Vera Playa

Follow the Costa del Sol coastal road via Fuengirola and Torremolinos to Malaga for a quick city tour; on to Torre del Mar and Nerja – with a visit to the caves. Continue via Almuñecar and Motril to Roquetas de Mar and on to Vera Playa for 9 nights. (See pages 20-21 for full details).

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract: and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

It is your responsibility to comply with the house rules of your holiday resort(s), e.g. regarding photography.

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

Climate

The Costa Almeria boasts 322 days of sunshine annually, with an average of five hours daily even in winter, producing enviable tans year-round. The sea is noticeably warmer than on the Costa del Sol. The air is so clean and clear that nearby Tabernas has been chosen as the site of an observatory. The sea is similarly unpolluted.

Resorts

Vera Natura has direct access to the beach. There is a large pool, an indoor pool, a children's pool and play area and petanca (boule). Football and volleyball are on the beach.

La Menara is 200m from the beach. Pleasant gardens with swimming pool and children's pool. Built in Moorish style with fountains and arched windows and doors.

Bahia de Vera is 300m from the beach and has well-kept gardens with a pool and children's pool. There is also an indoor pool, small tennis court (bring your own bats and balls) and a children's playground.

Parque de Vera is 150m from the beach and has extensive gardens and sunbathing lawns. The pool is floodlit at night.

Torremar Natura is 250m from the beach has a pool and children's pool with sunbathing lawns and a kiddies' corner as well as an indoor pool.

Accommodation

All accommodation is privately owned and individually equipped. Most apartments are in 2-storey buildings with terrace and a small garden, garden furniture and 2 loungers on the ground floor, or large balcony on the first floor. Duplex apartments are on 2 upper floors.

Kitchens are well equipped with at least a 2-ring hob, some with microwave or grill, fridge, coffeemaker, toaster, all crockery and cutlery, even satellite TV.

At the start of the new millennium, a number of separate naturist apartment complexes with individual architecture and facilities were developed along the beach at Vera ('Vera Playa'). First there was Vera Natura, then followed La Menara, Bahia de Vera, Parque de Vera and Torremar Natura. They have now grown together into a large naturist village – Poblado Naturista, each set in well-kept traffic-free gardens.

Location

The town of Vera is situated on the Costa Almeria at the north-eastern end of Andalusia, Spain's southern-most province. The nearby mile-long sandy beach of the same name has been officially designated for naturist use.

Bed linen is changed once a week, towels twice. Cots are available at no supplement. There is a charge for private covered parking, otherwise there is free on-street parking.

Facilities

A restaurant/snack bar ('Chiringuito') is right on the beach and serves à la carte meals as well as fast food. There is a nude side with terrace and a 'textile' side as well as several other restaurants in the nude area.

Vera Natura has a well-stocked supermarket, service launderette and a reception desk with multi-lingual staff.

Within two miles there is both a golf course with 2 x 18 holes and a scuba-diving school. Further restaurants, supermarket and cash machines are in nearby Puerto Rey and Garrucha.

A bar with musical entertainment is near Reception. (The evening entertainment at the nearby Hotel Vera Playa is also open to casual visitors).

Sights & excursions

The area has many archaeological sites revealing Phoenician, Roman and Carthaginian histories. Visits to the local markets are very popular – Mojacar on Wednesdays, Garrucha on Fridays and Vera on Saturdays.

Garrucha is the nearest town, about three miles away. It is a little fishing port with interesting fish and street markets.

Mojacar, about 10 miles away, is a picturesque village of flower-decked white houses on a promontory, dating back some 5,000 years. It overlooks the shimmering Mediterranean. Visitors from all over the world are attracted by its colourful past and give its bars and restaurants a cosmopolitan atmosphere.

Vera is just 6 miles away. On Saturdays most of the town centre becomes a giant open-air market selling practically everything.

The Indalo, also known as the 'Mojacar Puppet', has been used in Mojacar since ancient times: when finishing the white-washing of their houses, the town's women would draw this symbol over the doors to keep bad spells and storms away. The Indalo is now the symbol of the whole

1 week £85, 2 weeks £185, 3 weeks £300. Minimum two people per booking.

3-day hire from and to Vera Natura, £60 (1 week £116). Must be pre-booked and prepaid – please state the preferred period on your booking form.

Costa Natura

- Family resort with self-catering studios and apartments in beachfront location
- Solar heated outdoor swimming pool, sauna, jacuzzi, massage
- Volleyball court, table tennis, boules. Tennis courts and golf courses nearby
- Beautiful sub-tropical gardens. On-site restaurant and supermarket
- Excursions to Tangier, Seville and Ronda
- Excellent climate for holidays at any time of the year
- 'Animation' (organised activities) all summer

Beyond the high-rise townships of Malaga, Torremolinos, Fuengirola, etc, a large number of luxurious holiday clubs have been developed around Marbella – and west, along Spain's Costa del Sol. One of these exclusive clubs is Costa Natura, the first official naturist resort on the Spanish mainland.

Costa Natura has over 200 apartments. The striking architecture is typically Andalusian, with white walls, curved tiles and patios which open out to the luscious palm-fringed gardens and the sea. The beautiful layout mixes colourful flower beds with clusters of apartments and a few imposing 'pyramids' which blend well into the rising ground.

Location

Costa Natura is situated between Malaga (60 miles) and Gibraltar (27 miles), just three miles from the small town of Estepona. On the few bad days of the year (no heat haze!), the impressive Rock of Gibraltar and even the Rif Mountains of North Africa can be clearly seen.

More and more people retire to the Costa del Sol because of its exceptionally mild climate year-round. Costa Natura has a growing number of permanent residents who contribute to the lively atmosphere of the resort which is open the whole year.

Facilities

The focal point of the resort is the swimming pool – heated by solar power when necessary and possible. It is surrounded by pleasant sunbathing lawns, with a number of sun loungers available. Showers, sauna and a jacuzzi are nearby. Overlooking the pool is the restaurant/bar with a large open-air terrace. There is evening entertainment in the restaurant and bar (typically a Spanish trio, a folklore show, guitarist, games, dancing, etc).

The supermarket stocks basic food and drink. Other items such as fresh meat, newspapers, etc are supplied to order (a day later).

A volleyball court, table tennis, miniten and massage are available and a tennis court ('textile') is nearby. There is a large number of golf courses on the Costa del Sol. The nearest are at Estepona, El Paraiso and at Sotogrande, each a 20 minute drive away.

Cars may be hired from reception on a daily basis. (Recommended for sightseeing, shopping and eating out.)

CAR HIRE OFFER

Car hire is available for the duration of your holiday, from and to Gibraltar Airport. The cost of a group C car (Renault Clio or similar) with air-conditioning, unlimited mileage, taxes, bail bond and CDW insurance is:

1 week £65, 2 weeks £224, 3 weeks £383. From/to Malaga airport, 1 week £22, 2 weeks £121, 3 weeks £238. Pink 'EC-model' or photo driving license required.

The beach

The beach front of Costa Natura extends over 650 yards. The depth of the beach changes considerably with the tide, and it shelves fairly steeply. There is fine, grey sand, covered by shingle in places, and a few rocks. The sea temperature fluctuates greatly with the changing currents. Sun umbrellas and loungers are available for hire. From lunchtime, the beach bar serves tapas, freshly pressed juices and all other drinks.

Accommodation

The well-appointed, spacious apartments all have a terrace. All beds serve as settees during the day. Although single, they are mounted on wheels and can be joined together to make double beds within seconds.

The kitchenettes have a fridge, microwave, coffee maker, toaster and the necessary crockery, cutlery, pots, pans and towels. Each apartment has ample cupboard space, a clothes airer, ironing board, television set and telephone. Safe deposit boxes may be rented at reception.

Type E (for up to 2 people)

Studio with living/dining area, two bed/settees, shower/toilet and kitchenette with 2-ring electric hob.

Type A2 or C (for up to 4 people)

Open-plan apartment with living/dining area, four bed/settees, shower, separate toilet, kitchenette with 3-ring electric hob and breakfast bar.

Type A1 (for up to 5 people)

Two storey (duplex) apartment. Downstairs a living/dining area, three bed/settees, shower, separate toilet, kitchenette with 3-ring electric hob and breakfast bar. Upstairs is a twin-bedded room with a second (private) terrace.

Type B (for up to 6 people)

Apartment with living/dining area, two bed/settees, two separate twin-bedded 'cabins', shower, separate toilet, kitchenette with 4-ring electric hob and breakfast bar.

Sightseeing

Costa Natura is well placed for a wide range of excursions. Public buses to Estepona and Marbella stop outside the resort.

You can take the ferry across the Straits of Gibraltar to Ceuta and Tetuan. Ceuta, the Spanish enclave in Northern Africa, is great for sightseeing and duty-free shopping. Over the border, in Morocco, stop for lunch and a visit to the kasbah at Tetuan (passport required).

Tangier is perfect for a day trip by hydrofoil for sightseeing and shopping in the old Moroccan town and busy port (passport required, and visa for non-EU nationals).

In Seville visit the Alcazar, cathedral, Maria Luisa Park, Santa Cruz Quarter, etc.

There's a lovely scenic drive through the Ronda mountain range. Ronda is a typically Andalusian town of Celtic origin. Visit the Cathedral, the old quarter and Spain's oldest bull ring (with museum).

The Rock of Gibraltar is in sight of Costa Natura. It is as popular as ever with day visitors, keen to pick up duty-free bargains, although there are frequent, unpredictable delays at the border (passport required).

Gibraltar provides the Costa del Sol with English language radio. (At Costa Natura, six satellite TV channels are available, too.)

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract: and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

It is your responsibility to comply with the house rules of your holiday resort(s), e.g. regarding photography.

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

Vera Playa

- Choice of self-catering or half board with air-conditioned accommodation
- Family resort with beachside location – average of 322 days of sunshine a year
- Indoor (seasonal) and outdoor pools
- 'All-inclusive' option
- Full daily programme of activities and entertainment
- Children's facilities and playground with climbing frame, see-saws & swings
- Sightseeing includes Mojacar, Garrucha, 'Mini-Hollywood' and Granada

We have been operating holidays to the Hotel Vera Playa Club since 1991 and it has become our quickest success. The Club operates on a fully naturist basis, except for the dining room and during the evening and night.

Location

The Hotel Vera Playa Club is on the Costa Almeria at the northern tip of Andalusia, Spain's southern-most province. The nearest towns are Garrucha and Vera, three and six miles away respectively. The Costa Almeria is on the same latitude as Tunis in North Africa. (The hotel is in the bay where Hannibal and his elephants landed to invade Europe!)

Climate

The area boasts 322 days of sunshine annually, with an average of five hours daily, even in the winter (producing enviable tans year round). The sea is noticeably warmer than on the Costa del Sol. The air is so clean and clear that nearby Tabernas has been chosen as the site of an observatory.

The Hotel

The complex has been built to a very comfortable 4-star standard. Generous use of glass and bright warm colours (with attractive local 'azulejo' tiles everywhere) create a pleasing and relaxed environment for naturism. The imposing entrance hall/lounge is full of plants, and the busy glass-sided lifts and large water feature create a buzz of activity.

Accommodation

The hotel offers half board in 161 hotel rooms and self-catering in 84 studios, 30 apartments and three Playa Suites. All accommodation has air-conditioning, ceiling fan, wardrobe and dressing table, direct dial telephone and satellite TV (BBC World, Eurosport).

Each room has either a balcony or terrace with pool or lateral sea view. The bathrooms are en suite, with a large circular bath, shower, hairdryer, hand-basin and toilet. Beach towels are also provided and changed on demand. Additionally, all rooms have an in-room safe (you rent the key from Reception).

Hotel rooms (half board)

These are rooms with two large twin beds and a smaller divan or one single bed.

Studios (self-catering)

These have sleeping accommodation for two or three people (as rooms above). They are fully equipped for self-catering with kitchenette, electric oven, 2-ring electric hob, fridge/freezer, crockery and cutlery.

Apartments (self-catering)

Furnished as above for two to four people, with separate bedroom (twin or double bedded).

Playa Suites (no meals)

There are three Playa Suites on first floor level, sharing a heated swimming pool which overlooks the sea. They are designed for two people with double bed, round bath, hand-basin, desk, tea/coffee-making tray, mini-bar (chargeable), TV and coffee table with two chairs – all in one room! In the separate bathroom there is a shower, toilet, bidet, hairdryer and scales. A separate walk-in closet is equipped with open wardrobe, shelves, safe (chargeable), bathrobes and ironing board with iron. Meals are not included, and there are no cooking facilities.

VIP PACKAGE FOR A REALLY SPECIAL HOLIDAY!

Flights to and from Almeria. Limousine transfers between Almeria airport and the Vera Playa Club. Accommodation in the Presidential Suite. Breakfast. Champagne on the first and last day. Fresh fruit basket on alternate days. Fridge stocked daily with a selection of alcoholic miniatures and soft drinks. For detailed prices, see page 62.

The Presidential Suite (breakfast included)

Furnished for two people, the luxurious open-plan suite has a king-size double bed with mirror ceiling, round bath, double washbasin, desk with private fax machine, tea/coffee-making tray, a coffee table and chairs, TV and video recorder, an oriental salon with soft furnishings, a kitchen – without hob(!) – fridge stocked with free spirits and soft drinks, a dining table with four chairs and a further TV. The bathroom and walk-in closet are similar to those in the Playa Suites. Located on the top floor, the Presidential Suite has a private terrace with table, chairs and sun-loungers, a plunge pool and both pool and sea views.

Meals

The air-conditioned restaurant is for guests only and provides all meals on a self-service basis. Breakfast is a copious affair, with over 40 different items. The lunch and dinner buffets and live cooking consist of hot and cold dishes, including salads, vegetables, meat, fish and local specialities. Gentlemen are required to wear long trousers for dinner. The restaurant has designated smoking and non-smoking areas.

Facilities

The four wings of the hotel form a centre with the character of a village. The magnificent fresh-water swimming pool, with a flume for children, is surrounded by lots of sun-loungers. The heated open-air jacuzzi is popular with people who want to chat! There are also showers for rinsing off, a children's playground (with climbing frame, see-saw and swings), table tennis, garden chess, minigolf, shuffleboard and darts. The adjacent Caribe Bar has a pool-side terrace and the Andalus pub is off the hotel lobby. In October and April/May there is also a small heated indoor pool. Other facilities include a souvenir shop with international papers and a launderette with ironing equipment.

In front of the hotel is a 'textile' shopping parade with well stocked supermarket, souvenir shop, pizzeria and the Broadway Bar.

The beach

The Vera Playa Club has a wide stretch of sandy beach which has been officially designated for naturists' use and is nearly one mile long.

Activities

Organised daytime activities for adults include gymnastics, table tennis, boules, darts, archery, air rifle shooting, volleyball and water polo. For youngsters, there's a miniclub programme (June 1 to September 15) featuring gymnastics, crossbow, painting, games, boules and water polo.

The poolside terrace is floodlit at night (until midnight) and doubles as a disco and stage for flamenco shows, dancing, games, and cabaret. Additionally, Ideal Couple, Mister Travesty and Miss Vera Playa Club competitions are popular. Free activities include tennis ('textile') and cycling (maximum two hours per day), subject to availability.

Sightseeing

Garrucha is the nearest town, about four miles away. It is a little fishing port with interesting fish and street markets.

Mojacar is a picturesque village of flower-decked white houses about 10 miles away, dating back some 5,000 years, and overlooking the shimmering Mediterranean.

Mini-Hollywood consists of two Wild West towns purpose-built for filming Spaghetti westerns, notably The Good, the Bad & the Ugly. Other local film productions include Lawrence of Arabia, Treasure Island and Indiana Jones & the Last Crusade. A sizeable zoo is attached to Mini-Hollywood.

Granada is one of Spain's most interesting and beautiful ancient cities. Must-see things include the Alhambra, the cathedral and the Generalife.

Vera is transformed on Saturdays when most of the town centre becomes an open air market, selling practically everything.

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract; and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

It is your responsibility to comply with the house rules of your holiday resort(s), e.g. regarding photography.

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

Club Orient, St Martin

- ✳ Family resort, located on a beautiful tropical beach in the French West Indies
- ✳ Powdery white sands lapped by crystal clear waters
- ✳ Quiet location, ideal for that special holiday
- ✳ Excellent on-site restaurant and beach bar and grill. Daily happy hours, specials and entertainment
- ✳ On-site general store with boutique, spa and fitness water sports facility, sand volleyball and tennis courts
- ✳ Duty-free island – no taxes or duties
- ✳ Constant warm temperatures for year-round holidays

Club Orient is a premier naturist resort, situated on the world famous, mile and a half long Orient Beach on the Caribbean Island paradise of French St Martin. You will find one of the finest white sand beaches and crystal clear waters in the world is close to all accommodation.

The beautiful tropical climate is the same year-round: the mean annual air temperature is 27°C (80°F), cooled constantly by the gentle Trade Winds. The water temperature is the same. Thus Club Orient is one of our year-round holiday destinations. Hurricanes can occur between June and October.

Club Orient's freedom to roam the property 'au naturel' is an escape from everyday life and the return to basics you have desired. Clothes are optional at all times throughout the resort, including the reception, shop, restaurant and the beach.

The resort

Club Orient is set on a tropical beach on a peninsula of about 30 acres. This first clothes-optional resort in the Caribbean was opened in 1981. Club Orient blends perfectly with the scenery; all buildings are single storey. The red pine studios and mini-suites are log cabins from Finland, and the concrete-built chalets are painted to match the sand around them.

Accommodation

Club Orient offers 137 ocean front or garden bungalows which can accommodate 3 to 7 persons each. Every spacious unit is equipped with a full kitchen and dining area, air conditioning, internet access, in-room safe, front and back patios with picnic table, beach chairs and towels and daily maid service.

There are five different types of accommodation to choose from: family-size chalets sleep up to 4 persons; studios sleep up to 3 persons; mini-suites and mini-suites deluxe sleep up to 4 persons; La Villa sleeps up to 7 persons.

The beach

The magnificent crescent shaped Orient Beach stretches 1½ miles around a spectacular turquoise bay at the base of St Martin's most dramatic mountains. Protected by the only barrier reef in the eastern Caribbean, it is free from dangerous currents and is perfect for snorkelling, swimming and any kind of water sport you can imagine. The balmy Trade Winds from the east make it the ideal spot for windsurfing and sailing. Three uninhabited islands in the bay present perfect destinations for short boat trips and picnic outings.

Facilities

Club Orient Resort has thought of everything for you – all within the resort where clothing is always optional

La Boutique boasts an art gallery and offers an exclusive line of clothing, tee shirts, pareos, jewellery, accessories, souvenirs and many other gifts. The food market carries a wide selection of products including beef, chicken and fish. Fresh pastries and bread are delivered daily. Suntan lotions and many other drugstore items are also available.

The full service Papagayo Restaurant and Bar is open seven days a week and serves Continental breakfast, including freshly squeezed juices and French pastries. At lunchtime, it features a wide variety of European and American specialities. In the evening, the Papagayo is transformed into one of the best restaurants on the island with a selection of international dishes and a wine list offering quality French and Californian wines. Daily specials are available for lunch and dinner. Daily happy hour is from 5:30-6:30 pm.

The Perch Bar and Grill has become the favourite daytime hang out. Open seven days a week serving a barbecue lunch and cold drinks, its daily happy hour is from 12:30-1:30 pm.

The sand volleyball court is open to all Club Orient guests and is located next to the Perch Bar and Grill. Volleyballs are available at the reception desk.

The Water Sports Centre offers snorkelling, windsurfing, kayaks, paddle boats, sailboats and catamarans. Lessons are available for windsurfing. A clothes-optional cruise operates to the beautiful island of Tintamare for the day! You'll snorkel, explore the island, sunbathe and admire the tantalising beauty of the Caribbean scenery. The captain and crew will treat you to a wonderful lunch served aboard at midday.

There are two 'American Green' multi-layer surface tennis courts for Club Orient guests. The courts have lights for night time play. Tennis racquets are available free of charge at Reception. Tennis balls can be purchased at the La Boutique.

The Spa and Fitness Centre is open seven days a week offering treatments and massages. The fitness room is available for Club Orient guests and offers a variety of cardio and weight equipment.

At reception, services offered are car hire (by the day) and a business centre. A self-service laundry is also available.

Entertainment

Every Monday night the manager holds a wine and cheese party in the Papagayo Restaurant. It is a great way to get to know the other holidaymakers and to make new friends. Several times a week live music draws people to the dance floor. It has become an enjoyable custom among newfound friends to take turns in throwing barbecue dinner parties ('bring a bottle'), on the terraces and in the gardens around the well-equipped accommodation.

Location

Club Orient is located only 6 miles from both the French and Dutch capitals – Marigot and Philipsburg, and is only minutes away from Grand Case, the gourmet capital of the Caribbean. The beauty of St Martin and its cultural diversity make our Island truly a one-of-a-kind adventure. The charm comes from mingling the French, Dutch and West Indian traditions, fine boutiques, duty-free shopping, 18-hole golf course, scrumptious dining, entertaining nightlife and an abundance of land and sea excursions. Whether you desire tranquillity, exciting nightlife or a lively adventure on the sea, St Martin offers it all. The reception desk would be happy to help you plan reservations.

Shopping

St Martin is a free port with no import duties or sales taxes. Therefore, it is a true shoppers' paradise. The main shopping areas are Front Street and Back Street in Philipsburg. They are lined with Dutch West Indian style shops, piled high with Caribbean batik, embroidered linen, international fashions, pearls and gems, digital watches, radios, calculators, cameras, spirits, cigarettes, Dutch and Cuban cigars, etc.

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract: and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

It is your responsibility to comply with the house rules of your holiday resort(s), e.g. regarding photography.

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

Eden Bay, Dominican Republic

- ★ 4-star all-inclusive luxury at low introductory prices
- ★ No need to wear any clothes – for one or two weeks
- ★ Blissful tranquillity and laid-back atmosphere
- ★ Wedding facilities available, with minimum formalities
- ★ Year-round sunshine with 81-83° temperatures
- ★ Superb 18-hole golf course (textile) nearby
- ★ Scuba diving and opportunity to obtain PADI certification

New for 2007!
Air-conditioning
in all accommodation.

After hundreds of years of colonialism, a distinctly Spanish influence is evident everywhere – the language, architecture, local music – merengue, and even the afternoon siesta.

Eden Bay Resort

The 123 acre resort has an 800ft waterfront and is built on two levels. On the cliff top at the upper level are the clubhouse with reception, the open-sided dining room, TV/video room, massage room, dart board, pool table, gift shop, small library and bar as well as two 3-storey blocks of hotel rooms, studios and apartments, fresh-water pool with swim-up bar, open-air jacuzzi, sun loungers and two clay tennis courts.

There is a buggy service to the sea-level cove which can also be accessed by steps (58) and a little used service road. Here a shuffleboard court, a further heated swimming-pool, jacuzzi, water-volleyball pool, sand volleyball

In 1994, the world's first 'all-inclusive' clothing-optional resort opened in the Dominican Republic: the Paradise Beach Resort. This has since changed its name to Eden Bay Resort, to avoid confusion with other hotels of a similar name, and re-opened in 2003.

Purpose-built for American naturist investors, many of whom visit their property several times a year, the resort offers superb facilities and a choice of very spacious and well-equipped accommodation. This private estate is totally secluded from the outside world due to the walled front entrance and the natural high and rugged cliffs encompassing the beach and lower areas.

Dominican Republic

Between Cuba and Puerto Rico lies the second largest island in the Caribbean: Hispaniola (discovered by Christopher Columbus in 1492). Whilst the western end represents Haiti, the remainder of the island is taken up by the Dominican Republic.

The Dominican Republic (not to be confused with the island of Dominica) is a developing country with a magnificent tropical climate and vegetation: there are lush green mountains, rain forests and turquoise seas. Coffee, tobacco, cocoa and cane sugar (most of it turned into rum!) are the main produce. Amber, a fossilised resin (remember Jurassic Park?), is mined locally and crafted into ornaments.

court, plenty of sun loungers, a couple of hammocks, a water sports centre and beach bar with telescope for whale watching, are set in a romantic coconut palm grove. There is also a popular thatched massage hut on the ocean front. A few steps behind are four rows of luxurious detached villas.

All-inclusive plan

This includes all meals and snacks in the bars and restaurant with waiter service, unlimited soft and local alcoholic drinks (cocktails, spirits, beer), house wines with meals, recreational facilities, beach towels, tennis, snorkeling and diving lessons in the pool (including equipment) and kayaks. At an extra charge are premium spirits and premium wines, scuba diving, offshore snorkeling trips, horse-riding, golf, massage/manicure/pedicure, internet service, car hire, excursions and goods from the gift shop.

The Latin-American temperament of the friendly locals is infectious, and you will soon become part of their laid-back life style: Lap up the sun, enjoy exotic rum-based cocktails and leave any strenuous activities until mañana...

'Clothing-optional'

Americans use 'clothing-optional' almost synonymously for naturism: effectively, Eden Bay is a nudist resort – nudity is quite normal in all areas, day or night. However, some people prefer to cover their lower half for dinner.

Accommodation

For 2007 all accommodation at Eden Bay has been newly decorated and furnished and equipped with air conditioning, telephone and Wi-Fi internet service. All accommodation can sleep up to four people and has a balcony or terrace and a safe deposit box. There are 48 hotel rooms, 12 studios, six apartments and 60 villas all offering some view of the sea.

Hotel rooms have one king-size (double width) or two queen-size (1½ width) beds, coffee table and two chairs, wardrobe, fridge and shower/wc.

Studios have one king-size, or two queen-size beds, with reading lights, coffee table and two chairs, open hanging space and plenty of drawers, shower/wc and fridge/freezer.

Apartments have one king-size or two queen-size beds in a separate bedroom and an enormous lounge/dining room with a double bed/settee. All equipment is the same as in the studios.

Villas are all identical in size and equipment. They comprise a large bedroom with a king-size or two queen-size beds, wardrobe and dressing table. The equally large lounge/dining room has a coffee table, settee and two easy chairs, a dining table, four chairs and a sideboard. The bathroom has a full-size bath, shower, wc and basin with an enormous top.

The beach

Whilst the palm trees grow on sand, the actual edge of the sea is marked by coral (gray rock), except for two small sections where sea access is over sand. (Swimming sandals are recommended.)

Excursions

The 18-hole Playa Grande Golf Course, designed by Robert Trent Jones, is just three miles away. With ten of the holes affording spectacular sea-views it is one of the two best golf courses in the Caribbean.

Whale watching (late Dec to late March)

Boat trip to Samana Bay, home of over 3,000 humpback whales. Visit the whales in their own environment.

Discover scuba diving

Pool lesson, approximately two hours, including equipment: learn to dive in the morning and go out later in the day on an ocean dive with your professional PADI certified instructor. Scuba certification is available.

Nude scuba diving

Available for beginners as well as experienced divers – bring your C-card and logbook. Wall diving, swim-thru's, arches, coral gardens, deep dives and shallow dives.

EARLY BOOKING OFFERS!

For holidays departing May 1 to September 30: book before January 31 and save £85 per person (twin room), £110 (single); book before April 30 and save £57 per person (twin room), £74 (single).

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract: and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

Jamaica, in the Greater Antilles, is the largest of the English-speaking Caribbean islands. The lush, tropical vegetation, refreshing waterfalls, white sandy beaches and the reggae feeling make this a fascinating country.

The country is very mountainous, with the highest point, Blue Mountain Peak, reaching 7,402 feet. With an average temperature of 82°F, you'll find that the many fine beaches are particularly inviting.

Grand Lido Braco

This is a 5-star deluxe all-inclusive resort, catering for adult couples and singles only. Built as a village, it comprises a town square where guests can enjoy a choice of three restaurants, a sidewalk cafe, a pastry shop, artisan galleries and exquisite boutiques. Classic island architecture, in 'Gingerbread' and Georgian styles, frame every corner of the resort and remind you of quaint little Caribbean towns. The grounds are lush with tropical trees, bushes and plants

Grand Lido Braco is operated by SuperClubs, the leading company operating Super Inclusive Hotels in the Caribbean. They offer a constant array of wonderful things to eat and drink, nightly entertainment and unlimited land-based and water sports.

Location

Grand Lido Braco is situated on the north coast of Jamaica in Trelawny, one mile west of the quaint little town of Rio Bueno, 32 miles east of Montego Bay.

'Au naturel'

A self-contained separate part to the west of the hotel is reserved for naturists. It has 52 suites in two buildings, all supporting facilities and, of course, a naturist beach.

Accommodation

Beachfront Junior Suites comprise king-size bed or two double beds and private bath/shower with hairdryer. They are equipped with air-conditioning, ceiling fans, satellite TV, radio and CD-player, direct dial telephone, mini-bar, in-room coffee service, safe, iron and ironing board, and either a gazebo-style patio or balcony. One-bedroom Beachfront Suites are similar, but with a separate bedroom.

(The above are the only accommodation types available on the naturist side of the resort.)

Meals

On the 'textile' side of the resort there is a continental restaurant for breakfast, lunch and dinner (indoor) and an outside eating area as well as 24-hour room service. The buffet breakfast offers croissants, different types of bread, tropical fruits, yoghurt, cereals, cakes, eggs, sausages, cheeses and coffee, tea or other drinks.

For lunch the buffet comprises salads, fruit and other starters, soup, various meat and fish dishes, vegetables, cheeses, cakes and tea or coffee. Dinner is usually served à la carte. Unlimited wine, beer and, on request, even cocktails are served with all main meals.

There are a further five restaurants including four speciality ones – Japanese, French, Italian and Jamaican. Reservations are required for the Japanese and French. Men will need to wear jackets in the French restaurant. Supersnacks are served from the pavement cafés from morning till late in the evening. In addition, two clubhouses serve food and drink.

There are eight bars with cool Red Stripe beer, potent rum punches, and international brand alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.

Facilities

The 'au naturel' section has a large free-form swimming-pool with swim-up bar, two jacuzzis, tennis court, volleyball, table tennis, pool table, jogging track and the naturist beach.

On the 'textile' side is a further Olympic-size swimming pool, two jacuzzis, scuba diving, snorkelling, windsurfing, sailing and kayaking – with equipment and instruction included. Also free are unlimited use of all equipment in the state-of-the-art open-air fitness centre (with instruction), play – including green fees – on the 9-hole Executive Course and green fees and transportation to SuperClubs' 18-hole Championship Golf Course at Runaway Bay. Two tennis courts are lit for play at night.

In addition, there is basketball, football, beach volley-ball, nature walks, 'mixology' (a drinking game played at the swim-up bar) and cookery classes. There is live entertainment nightly plus a resident band, piano bar and disco. A full service health and beauty salon offers complimentary manicures and pedicures. Laundry, dry cleaning and valet services are also free. Other facilities include a bureau de change, boutique and duty-free shop.

Note: All facilities on the 'textile' side are available to residents of the 'au naturel' area.

The beach

The resort has a fine sandy beach. It shelves gently and is protected by a rock barrier so swimming is excellent at both high and low tide. 250 yards are reserved for naturists.

Sights & excursions

Ocho Rios and Dunn's River Falls

Ocho Rios in the middle of the long north coast. It is the fastest growing tourist resort on the island and a busy port of call on Caribbean cruises. It still retains much of the charm of the pretty fishing village it once was.

Dunn's River Falls is a celebrated beauty spot where waterfalls cascade over unique formations of tiers of rocks inviting a 600-foot climb. Afterward recover on the white sand (textile) beach.

Negril

This resort at the western tip of the island has seven miles of white sandy beach – one of the best in the world and protected by offshore coral reefs. The atmosphere is informal, carefree and totally laid-back. By law, no building is higher than the tallest palm tree.

Black River Safari

This exciting nature tour will give you a taste of the unspoilt south coast. Refresh yourself in the Ys waterfalls (bring costumes!) before taking a boat down the Black River and meeting the odd friendly crocodile.

Rose Hall

This plantation mansion was built in 1760 and has now been restored to its former magnificence. The second mistress of the estate was Annie Palmer, said to be the 'White Witch of Rose Hall', who ruled with cruelty and met with a violent death.

Greenwood Great House

Elizabeth Barrett Browning's cousin built this house. It is decorated in the old plantation style with fine pieces of antique furniture and contains a rare collection of musical instruments.

Hedonism II & III

- ✳ Adults-only 'party' resorts, nudist rather than naturist
- ✳ All-inclusive – food, drink, sports and entertainment
- ✳ Check in your inhibitions when you check in at Reception
- ✳ Meet like-minded people from around the world
- ✳ Excellent facilities for activities in twos or groups, day or night
- ✳ Year-round sunshine
- ✳ Direct flights from the UK

Be wicked for a week... stay up late! Give up counting calories... have a drink before noon! Give up mineral water... dine in shorts! Talk to strangers... don't make your bed! Don't call your mother... let your hair down! Don't pay for anything... don't leave a tip! Be your beautiful self... be a hedonist! At Hedonism – the pleasure comes in many forms.

The resorts

Hedonism II, affectionately referred to as Hedo, evolved in 1981 from the Negril Beach Village (which could be described as Hedo I). Hedonism II and III are well known in Britain as the stars of the TV series Pleasure Island and Caribbean Uncovered (however, there is a general strict 'no photography' rule.)

Stretched along the northern end of Negril's fabulous 7-mile beach, Hedo II comprises two parts, one 'prude', the other 'nude', set in 22 acres of landscaped gardens with tropical plants and soaring guango, palm and fruit trees. There is even a small bird park with mainly native Jamaican birds – of the feathered variety!

All facilities are available to all residents, but swimwear must be worn where facilities are located on the prude side.

Hedo II's newer sister resort, Hedo III, was opened in 1998 on the northern coast of Jamaica. It has very similar facilities and atmosphere.

Atmosphere

Hedonism ('the pursuit of pleasure as a way of life') is the ultimate place for self-indulgent adults. Free spirits from around the world are attracted to Hedo's liberal lifestyle and uninhibited 'party' atmosphere. Anything and everything goes, shocking and stimulating. Motto: If it feels good, do it!

A holiday at Hedo is not for those who shock easily, you can be as mild or as wild and exhibitionist as you like – it's up to you.

Accommodation

All rooms have individual air-conditioning, tiled floors, king-size or twin beds, ceiling mirrors, settee and coffee table, dressing table and stool, direct-dial telephone, cable TV, radio/CD player, coffee maker, hair-dryer, iron/ironing board and a safe. Private bath/shower and wc. Towels are changed frequently, and beach towels are dispensed on the beach and by the pool-sides. Electricity is 110V AC. Singles may book on a same-sex sharing basis.

Our rooms are on the nude side and overlook the gardens or the glorious beach but cheaper 'run-of-the-house' rooms on the prude side are also available.

HOLIDAY IDEA

Food & drink

All food and drink is included in this holiday from early morning until late at night: Meals are usually taken buffet-style in the open-air Terrace Room, with hot breakfasts cooked to order. For main meals, choose from crisp fresh salads to gourmet desserts, and in between an excellent spread of international and Jamaican dishes. In the more intimate Italian-style Pastafari restaurant and the Japanese restaurant (casual-elegant clothing and advance booking required) meals are served à la carte. 'Snack Attack' is available 24 hours.

There are six bars, including a swim-up bar in the nude pool. Several bars on the beach have grills – if you cannot tear yourself away to eat in the main dining area at lunch time! International and local premium-brand spirits, tropical cocktails, wine, Red Stripe beer and, if you insist, even soft drinks are on tap for 19 hours day and night.

Try 'Dirty Banana' – crushed ice blended with half a banana, dark rum and coffee liqueur. Iced pinacolada is available on the nude beach by self-service! There is also a soft drinks dispenser.

The beach

At Hedo II the small concrete pier divides the sandy beach into the nudist and the slightly larger 'textile' part. Each has a floating raft, 20 yards off the beach, and there are plenty of sun-loungers and lilos. Secluded hammocks for two are available in various parts of the grounds. The far end of this fabulous nudist beach is the best place to watch the romantic sunset for which Negril is famous.

Hedo III has a man-made beach with similar facilities.

Activities

For land sports, choose from six floodlit tennis courts, volleyball, shuffleboard, basketball, badminton, and two air-conditioned squash courts. The fitness centre features Nautilus equipment, stationary bicycles, stair-climbing machine and free weights. The games room has satellite TV, video games, pool and table tennis. There are bicycles, garden chess, a rock climbing wall, an ice skating rink, minigolf, internet café, reggae dancing classes and the circus school with tightrope walking, flying and swinging trapeze, trampoline clinics, juggling and unicycling.

There are a nude and a prude out-door fresh-water swimming pool, a small prude and a large nude jacuzzi, a glass-bottom jacuzzi on the roof of the disco and a nude misting pool. Water sports include Sunfish sailboats, windsurfing, salt-water kayaks, snorkelling, scuba diving, water-skiing and glass-bottom boat rides. The dive shop offers equipment and tuition.

All activities, including tuition, are free!

Entertainment

During the day, the large team of entertainers organise a wide range of competitions: volleyball, bocceball, aerobics, dirty-joke-telling and wet T-shirt contests (without T-shirts...), rum punch and beer drinking games, etc. Winners are rewarded with Hedo-Dollars which may be redeemed for prizes.

There is live entertainment in the evenings – floor shows, Jamaican bands and performers, themed parties, e.g. toga (sheets provided), pyjama (as bare as you dare) and reggae beach (wet, wild and wilder) parties. Alternatively, there is an air-conditioned piano bar, complete with laser karaoke equipment to let you show off your talent!

The famous disco, below the pool with see-through bottom, is equipped to the most modern standards and boasts its own long bar. It opens from 23:00 to 05:00 hrs. Bring the outfits which you bought at Cap d'Agde and which you dare not wear anywhere else!

Following a visit to the disco, many people tend to move to the nude jacuzzi for more private action. Learn strip poker in the nude!

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract: and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

It is your responsibility to comply with the house rules of your holiday resort(s), e.g. regarding photography.

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

Sorobon Beach, Bonaire

- ✳ Family resort with self-catering in splendid and spacious chalets
- ✳ Safe tropical sandy beach on a beautiful lagoon
- ✳ Restaurant and bar on site
- ✳ Paradise for snorkelling and diving enthusiasts
- ✳ Totally relaxing, quiet hideaway (ideal for stressed executives)
- ✳ Ecological ('green') environment
- ✳ Hot temperatures year-round – nudity is comfortable day and night

Flamingo Airport is, appropriately, the gateway to Bonaire. This island is one of the few remaining breeding grounds for the gracious and shy flamingos. Their name and bright pink colour have been taken by numerous businesses on the island for their corporate identities.

Bonaire has created a protected ecological environment. One fifth of the island is a national park which includes numerous species of wildlife. It has a flamingo sanctuary, and wild donkeys and goats roam the countryside freely (a maximum speed limit of 40 mph applies to all roads!). Tourists are discouraged from discarding plastic bottles, carrier bags and other rubbish on the island, and the local supermarkets provide only paper bags.

The whole island is surrounded by coral reefs which look like a blue ring from the air and make it a diver's paradise. The beauty of the colourful underwater world is absolutely breathtaking, though strictly enforced local laws protect these natural wonders. No anchoring. No spearfishing. Even touching the coral is forbidden. There are over 350 species of fish.

Location & climate

Bonaire lies 50 miles north of Venezuela, outside the hurricane belt. It is part of the Netherlands Antilles. The yearly average temperature is 28°C (82°F) with 24°C (75°F) being the lowest of the year and practically no difference between day and night. Rainfall is 22 inches, humidity 75.5% and the water temperature 27°C (80°F). The constant Trade Winds, strongest from December to August, temper the heat.

Sorobon Beach Resort

Sorobon Beach was built by a Dutch couple in 1984 as a small naturist retreat on one of Bonaire's two sandy beaches. It has since changed ownership (but remains in Dutch hands), has been modernised and expanded and now has 30 well appointed units.

The resident population includes 16 staff, numerous sugarbirds (put a bowl of sugary water on your terrace and make yourself firm friends) and a lovely family of iguanas.

Accommodation

Each semi-detached single-storey chalet (for up to three adults and one child) contains a separate bedroom with a large double (queen-size) bed, a wardrobe, an in-room safe, ceiling fan and air-conditioning, shower/toilet and washbasin. (Bath and beach towels, flannels and soap are provided.) The spacious living/dining room has a single bed/settee, coffee table and two armchairs, dinner table with four chairs, electric fan and a fully equipped kitchenette with a 4-ring hob and fridge. All floors are tiled.

A shaded terrace is furnished with a wooden bench, a hammock, a table and two deck-chairs, and affords a view of the sea. Maid service is provided six days a week. Towels and linen are changed frequently.

The beach

The Sorobon Beach Resort fronts its private 200-yard section of the Sorobon Beach. It faces a shallow tropical lagoon (Cai Lac) backed by mangroves and protected by a coral reef half a mile out. Conch shells are part of the scenery.

Two rafts are moored in the bay for rests during snorkelling sessions or just for sunbathing. They are always occupied: when there are no humans about, the crabs take advantage! Plenty of shelters made of palm tree branches are equipped with sunloungers. A cold shower is nearby. The beach is spotless, and smokers are asked to use the ashtrays provided. Kayaks are available free.

Facilities

The motto of the Sorobon Beach Resort is 'unspoilt – unhurried – unclothed – unforgettable'. This must be the ultimate Caribbean hideaway for a quiet and relaxing holiday – instead of clothes, pack your suitcase with books, and perhaps a set of snorkels, mask and flippers (they can be hired locally, too)! There is even an extensive free lending library with books in English, French, German and Dutch.

from a small menu. There is also a choice of two home-cooked, 3-course meals for dinner. The adjacent bar and open-air lounge are open all day. Card and board games are available. Happy Hour is from 17:30 to 18:30 hrs every day – the time to meet fellow holidaymakers.

Special themed nights – barbecues or Antillean evenings – are arranged once a week and feature relevant food. In high season, this is followed by a local band. Reception and a small adjoining shop sell postcards and a small range of souvenirs, beach and food items. There is also an internet facility. Free yoga sessions are held twice a week on the beach (minimum of four people). Massage is available six days a week for an appropriate charge.

The age-old problem of ‘Where do naturists carry their money?’ is solved by keeping a tab on all purchases during your stay. You settle your bill on departure: credit cards and US$ travellers’ cheques are accepted. Free transport into town (15 minutes) for an hour’s shopping in the supermarket operates Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Windsurfing (‘textile’), including expert tuition, is available next door to our resort. The steady on-shore winds and shallow waters make this an ideal location.

Sightseeing

Bonaire is a small island with no public transport. For activities outside the resort, it is necessary to hire a car – they are available through reception at daily and discounted weekly rates.

The main attractions lie under water: spectacular coral reefs and colourful tropical fish. That’s why Bonaire has been voted one of the world’s top three diving areas. Numerous establishments provide all the necessary facilities on and off shore.

For touring on dry land, the island can be divided into two circuits. The northern route takes in a rocky coastline, battered by a wild sea, and rugged hilly countryside, full of cacti up to 10-foot high, and millions of lizards. The Washington/Slagbaai National Park covers 13,500 acres, full of wonderful plants, over 100 species of beautiful birds and exotic animals. Goto Lake is a magnificent landlocked salt-water lake, favoured by flamingos. Rincon, the oldest settlement on the island dating back to 16C, is Bonaire’s second ‘town’.

The southern route reveals scenery contrasting with the north. A flat landscape with Lake Pekel Meer and extensive salt flats surrounding a huge ‘off-limits’ flamingo sanctuary. Colour contrasts are spectacular – turquoise sea, pink salt pans, snow-white hills of salt sparkling like diamonds and crystal clear skies. Tiny stone huts served as shelters for slaves who used to work in the salt pans.

The island’s small capital, Kralendijk, is home to most of Bonaire’s population (13,500). Its quaint architecture shows a strong Dutch-colonial influence and there’s a pleasant waterfront with restaurants and bars, a boating marina and a fish market. A popular half-day nude trimaran cruise with an hour’s snorkelling, drink and snacks is advertised.

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in table 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract: and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

It is your responsibility to comply with the house rules of your holiday resort(s), e.g. regarding photography.

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.

Caliente, Florida

- ★ Unrivalled luxury living in a vast 101-acre setting
- ★ Choice of accommodation, up to 4 adults in spacious units
- ★ Seven pools, including the quarter-acre Lagoon Pool with two islands
- ★ Huge variety of sporting and leisure activities
- ★ Spa treatments (extra charge) – facials, waxing, massages, manicures etc.
- ★ 'All-inclusive' option
- ★ Attractions such as Busch Gardens and Orlando theme parks within easy reach

Florida's newest naturist resort lies just 25 miles north of Tampa Airport. It opened in 2004 and immediately set new standards of nudist luxury.

The resort is set in a private 101-acre estate and has been designed to blend harmoniously with the natural landscape. More than 1,500 trees, majestic oaks and mature palms are found throughout the resort. Lush landscaping surrounds the three placid lakes giving splashes of colour at most times of the year. There is even a two-mile nature trail, designed for walking, jogging or cycling!

Caliente is a self-contained village with shopping, eating and drinking, entertainment facilities and activities all on site. The luxurious amenities are equally suited to just relax and do nothing at all – and why not be pampered in the amazing Spa.

Caliente has a mock-Spanish flavour to it with terracotta-tiled roofs and Spanish names for all facilities – Caliente means hot!

Facilities and Activities

All the facilities of the resort are grouped in and around the two-storey Clubhouse in a 16-acre area – two restaurants, five bars, nightclub/disco with a cutting-edge sound and video system, seven pools – including the quarter-acre Lagoon Pool with two islands and the Grotto Waterfall, two hot tubs, state-of-the-art fitness centre, sauna, steam baths, six pro tennis courts (three clay), two water volleyball pools and two sand volleyball courts, four petanque (boule) courts, basketball court, two shuffleboard courts, aerobics and a children's playground. There is also a Guest Services Reception, a library, a laundrette and an ATM machine. There are four golf courses within 20 minutes drive.

The Spa offers luxury service – facials, hand and foot care, hydrotherapy, body treatments, massage menu, multiple packages, waxing, eye and lip care etc.

Because of the internal distances, Caliente operates a complimentary stretch-golf-cart shuttle service between the Clubhouse and the residential areas. (Many residents also have their own golf buggies for which special parking areas are provided – with electric hook-ups to recharge the batteries overnight!)

Naturism

The resort is clothes-optional, including the Clubhouse, but all wet areas are clothes-free! Most people stay nude throughout, day or night.

Accommodation

Caliente is primarily a residential resort with 391 accommodation units. Apart from the 40 Motel Rooms, they are all privately owned. Therefore, they are equipped to the highest standards, i.e. spacious, with lavish furnishings, air-conditioning, clock radio, telephone, hairdryer, mosquito netting on the balconies (except Casitas), cable TV, coffeemakers etc.

settee and balcony, bathroom with full-size bath, wc and walk-in wardrobe, and a very large, fully-equipped kitchen.

Two-bedroom condos accommodate up to six people and are ideally suited for two couples. Luxuriously appointed they are carpeted wall-to-wall and feature a master bedroom with a queen-sized bed and a bathroom with shower, wc, bidet, walk-in wardrobe and his and her washbasins, a further bedroom with a queen-sized bed and a bathroom with a full-length bath and wc, a very large living/dining room with a queen-sized bed settee and balcony, and a very large, fully equipped kitchen.

Excursions

The attractions of Orlando are only 90 minutes away, and just 40 minutes away are those of Tampa Bay, e.g. Busch Gardens (family adventure park with thrilling rides, famous zoo, live shows and shops), Ybor City (dining and nightlife with Cuban flair), Adventure Island (30 acres of water-drenched fun – bring a swimming costume!) and various museums and aquariums. The Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Tampa Bay Storm's Arena Bowl baseball teams are based here, and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays play in St Petersburg.

CAR HIRE OFFER

Car hire is available for the duration of your holiday, from and to Tampa Airport. Compact 4-door car with air-conditioning, automatic transmission, unlimited mileage, collision damage waiver (CDW), theft waiver, third party liability insurance, airport surcharges, bail bonds and all local fees and taxes included. 1 week £120, 2 weeks £315. Driver must be at least 21 years of age and in possession of a full British driving licence.

Cypress Cove, Florida

- ★ Spacious motel rooms & self-catering apartments to high American standards
- ★ Large outdoor heated pools and palm-fringed lake, free canoes and pedalos
- ★ On-site restaurant and shop
- ★ Sports facilities include hard court tennis, basketball, petanque, shuffleboard
- ★ Family resort with children's playground
- ★ Centrally situated for all the major theme parks – self-drive car included
- ★ Cypress Cove is open all year

Low air fares across the north Atlantic now make a dream holiday in the USA a real possibility. Once there, any budget – food, eating out, entertainment and driving are all cheaper than at home. The locals are very friendly and understand our language – although they speak something quite different themselves!

One of the naturist resorts we have chosen in Florida is Cypress Cove. However, having flown nearly 4,000 miles to get there, we feel that you will want to see more of the New World than just a luxuriously appointed conventional nudist park; therefore, our arrangements include a self-drive car from the time you arrive at Orlando Airport until you depart again for home.

Location

Cypress Cove is set in the heart of Florida, just south of Orlando and ten miles from the centre of Kissimmee. It has numerous regular visitors and permanent residents. The school bus even stops at the gate every morning! The 260 acres of grounds cover the holiday resort, a larger residential area and the 50 acre Brown Lake and extensive wetlands.

Accommodation

There are two types of the 84 rental units – all fully air-conditioned, with a choice of smoking or non-smoking rooms:

Motel rooms (for up to 4 people)

These have two queen-size beds, telephone, dressing table and cable television. There is also a table and two chairs for playing cards or entertaining. The bathroom has a hairdryer, a full size tub for bath or shower, and a toilet. A small fridge provides a place to cool drinks and snacks. No cooking facilities. Daily maid service provided.

Apartments (up to 4 people)

These consist of a sitting area with settee, armchair, coffee table and cable television, plus a fully furnished kitchenette with fridge, stove, microwave oven, toaster, coffee-maker, dining table and four chairs. The adjoining bedroom has two queen-size beds, telephone, a further television, dressing table and a writing table with two chairs. The bathroom has a hairdryer, a full size tub for bath or shower, and a toilet. Daily maid service provided.

Climate

Florida's climate is sub-tropical, with fairly mild winters and hot, humid summers. The best months are May and October/November, although the summer months are made bearable with air-conditioned accommodation, cars and shops. Light, casual wear in cottons rather than nylons is usual anywhere outside the naturist resort. Cypress Cove is open all year round.

Facilities

The centre of Cypress Cove is the complex of two large swimming pools which can be heated by solar energy to a permanent temperature of 27°C (80°F). They are surrounded by a large terrace with lounge chairs and tables/umbrellas. The Cheeks pool bar serves alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks, ice-cream, and a menu of sandwiches and snacks.

The adjoining indoor jacuzzi accommodates about 10 people at a time. There is a second hot tub (open air); Bodyworks gym; Fig Leaf boutique; Silver Lining Massage (massage and spa); Nature Hair (beauty and nail salon); games room and playground.

Manicured lawns lead down to the club's private 50-acre lake, the front of which is lined by palms and oak trees offering shade and tranquillity. The use of the canoes and pedalos is free, and guests are invited to fish.

Other sports facilities include hard court tennis, basketball, 9-hole minigolf, petanque and shuffleboard courts.

The clothes-optional restaurant with full service, including full cooked to order breakfast, is open seven days a week. There is also a naturist library, table tennis tables, a small shop selling souvenirs, local papers and limited lines of foods, a vending machine for chilled soft drinks, a coin-operated launderette, a children's playground and The DNR Golf Cart Emporium. Free WiFi internet access.

With so much to see and do, we recommend that you allow four full days to see the Magic Kingdom, EPCOT Center, and the MGM Studios. We recommend that you buy a 4-day Park-Hopper pass including admission to the three parks as well as unlimited use of attractions and transport.

Sea World®

The world's largest marine life park features Shamu the killer whale performing spectacular feats, dolphin and seal shows, marine exhibits, aquariums and the famous Water Ski and Speedboat Show. At the Shark Encounter you can be surrounded by these intimidating but fascinating creatures by walking underneath the huge shark tanks on moving walkways.

Kennedy Space Center™

Daily tours look at the past and future of the American space programme. You can see the launch pad for US space shuttle and Apollo missions; the NASA Control Center; Mercury, Gemini and Apollo spacecraft and the Sky lab docking adaptor.

There are actual rockets, lunar rovers and landers and the space shuttle itself. Space films, demonstrations and exhibits cover 40 years of space endeavour.

Cypress Gardens

In over 200 acres of natural and landscaped beauty, there are spectacular shows on ice, in water and in the air. Also, the best traditions of American village life are recreated here to evoke memories of the Old South, down to Southern Belles who stroll the grounds with parasol in hand.

Wet 'n Wild

Slide, bob, bump or belly-flop (all 'textile'!) at this water theme park, just as the name implies. There is also a huge pool with sandy foreshore and waves, and water-skiing.

Alligatorland

Important - US visas

To holiday in the United States, a visa may be required. Applications for US visas should be made as soon as possible, preferably before the date on which the final balance payment for your holiday is due. British Citizens with a new style machine readable (red) passport do not usually require a visa, but Irish Citizens and British Subjects do. A visa may also be required if the passport holder has ever committed a recorded offence. Please check with the American Embassy (Tel: 0906 820 0290 - £0.60 per minute or 09042 450100 - £1.20 per minute) if you are unsure. There should be at least 6 months left before expiry of your passport and if your British passport has been issued on or after 1st October 2006 it will need to be of the biometric type for entry into the USA.

Booking Conditions & Insurance

YOUR CONTRACT is with Peng Travel Limited, a member of ABTA.

1. Your Holiday Contract

When you make a booking you guarantee that you have the authority to accept and do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions. A contract will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English Law and we both agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts at all times. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so.

2. Your Financial Protection

The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security by way of a bond held by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 0921 and a bond held by ABTA.

3. ABTA

We are a member of ABTA, membership number V3900. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found at www.abta.com.

4. Your Holiday Price

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £150 per person. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least nine weeks before your departure date. If the balance is not paid in time, we reserve the right to cancel your travel arrangements, retain any deposit(s) and apply the cancellation charges set out in table 7A (below).

PLEASE NOTE: We do not normally issue receipts for balance payments; however, we will do so on written request if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The price of your travel arrangements was calculated using the following exchange rates: €1.465; US $1.86.

The confirmed price of your travel arrangements is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges; however, errors and omissions can be rectified.

5. If You Change Your Booking

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible.

Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £15 per person, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date any changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. For date changes within nine weeks of the original departure date, cancellation charges apply, as shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: Certain travel arrangements (e.g. Apex tickets) cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel their travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in clause 7A.

NOTE: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

7. If We Change or Cancel Your Holiday

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 9 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. If we are unable to provide the booked travel arrangements, you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available. If it is necessary to cancel your travel arrangements, we will pay to you compensation as set out in this clause.

In accordance with EU regulations, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as shown on pages 72-73. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard.

If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements from us if available or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in table 7A at the foot of this page.

FORCE MAJEURE: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

8. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, PLEASE INFORM THE RELEVANT SUPPLIER (e.g. your hotelier) and/or our resort representative IMMEDIATELY who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative without delay and write a report WHILST IN RESORT; this should be agreed by the supplier and/or our representative. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9. What Happens To Complaints

It is unlikely that you will have a complaint that cannot be settled amicably between us. However, disputes to do with this contract which cannot be settled amicably, may be taken to a Small Claims Court or referred to Arbitration under a special scheme which is arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents but is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,000 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element.

The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators within nine months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if the company agrees, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement.

Full details of the scheme are available from the Association of British Travel Agents at 68-71 Newman Street, London W1T 3AH or the ABTA website at www.abta.com.

10. Our Liability To You

(i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements, which you book with us, are supplied as described in this brochure. If any parts of your travel arrangements are not provided as promised, due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. Subject to paragraph (ii) below, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the costs of your travel arrangements.

NOTE: Please bear in mind that some hotel and resort facilities may not be available for early and late season holidays. This is reflected in the lower prices shown for such periods.

(ii) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, our suppliers and sub-contractors, whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of your travel arrangements. We will accordingly pay to you such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English Law.

(iii) The amount of compensation to which you are entitled will be limited by: (a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. These terms are incorporated into this contract: and (b) The Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury or loss of or damage to luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these conventions.

You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices at 86 Station Road, Gidea Park, Romford, Essex RM2 6DB, Tel: 0845-345 8 345.

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 7. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk.

NOTE: Travel delays are the responsibility of the carriers.

11. Personal Injury Unconnected With Your Booked Travel Arrangements

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your package travel arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs and benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

12. Conditions of Carriage

This brochure is our responsibility, as your tour operator. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements.

Please note that in accordance with Air Navigation Orders in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of its return flight.

13. House Rules

It is your responsibility to comply with the house rules of your holiday resort(s), e.g. regarding photography.

14. Single Travellers & Under-Occupancy

Those of you who are single travellers or who wish to occupy accommodation with fewer people than the number shown on the price panel may feel that the cost per person of your holiday appears higher than it should be.

The reason for this supplement is that our contract with the owners is based on a price per room while our holidays are sold per person, including flights and other elements. Therefore the per person price for a lone traveller includes the entire room cost.

This applies both to single rooms in hotels and self-catering units where, for example, three people may want to occupy accommodation usually sold for four and priced accordingly.

We do not make additional or excessive profits from these sales, the prices charged merely reflect the real cost to us. In some hotels there are rooms that are designed for single occupancy only. In this instance there will normally be a supplement but usually less than when a single person occupies a double room. These single rooms are often smaller and sometimes less well appointed. We do not know which room you will be given as your hotel will usually decide this shortly before you arrive.

15. Holiday Insurance

In view of high holiday cancellation charges and costly medical attention abroad, we provide free insurance if you are under 75 (if you are 75 or older, we can quote a modest premium for cover). If your holiday includes more than 3 days when we are not providing your accommodation, we do not include free insurance for that time, but offer supplemental cover for £3.50 per person per week.

We have negotiated a travel insurance scheme underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc which is detailed in a policy which will be sent to you with your confirmation of booking. It is also available on request. (For the Bournemouth Reunion, cover is limited to cancellation charges only.)

We exclude cover for any pre-existing medical condition of those travelling or those persons on whom travel depends, such as a close relative, but cover may be granted if you refer your condition to our medical helpline. Please telephone 0870-906 3140 and discuss your condition in confidence before booking.

There are no age limits for our insurance but if you are aged over 75 you must be travelling with the approval of your General Practitioner.
